POET'S CORNER

MY PILOT

(By Malinda Oederkirk)
My craft is out on life's sea
Toasted by the angry waves.
Ever the dark shadows grow,
Ever the storm clouds rave.
But why did I tremble and fear
With dread at leaving the strand?
The oldest Pilot of all
Has the helm in his hands.
We shall sail on—
My Pilot and I.

O, gaily my winged ship sails
While fleeting time goes by.
What though the storm winds do blow?
Storms come our souls to try.
In time we shall weather the gale
And land on that farther shore.
Where we will joyfully greet
Souls who have sailed before.
We shall arrive—
My Pilot and I.
