FINAL AUDITIONS FOR PREMIERE SET

Final auditions will be held at the Indian theatre Saturday, February 19, for those local young people who feel that they can double for the stars of the stage, screen or radio in Roseburg's first and only Hollywood Premiere, which will be presented at the Indian theatre next Thursday evening. Most of the cast has already been selected, but a few parts are still open. Tests have been in progress for several days and the intensive rehearsals will start Monday.

The director will be at the theatre this evening from seven to nine o'clock for any applicants who wish to apply tonight.
