TOURISTS RETURN TO LOOKINGGLASS

LOOKINGGLASS, Feb. 21—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery and children, Marda Joan and Jackie, and Miss Grace Montgomery have returned home after motoring to Toronto, Kansas.

The party left on Jan. 16 and traveled over 1500 miles of desert through California, and Arizona. They saw many points of interest in California and among the interesting sights on the remainder of the journey were the Painted Desert, the petrified forests, Boulder dam and the large oil fields in Oklahoma.

Crossing the border from El Paso, Tex., to Juarez, Mexico, the party could not help noticing the vivid contrast between living conditions in the two countries. There were no traffic police there to hurry traffic along, and food was brought to market and sold along the side walks without benefit of a food inspector's approval.

The country around Toronto, Kan., was not recognized by Mr. R. B. Montgomery, who had lived there 53 years ago.

The effect of the five years' drought had changed tree lined streams to dust and scrubby brush

Hold Everything!

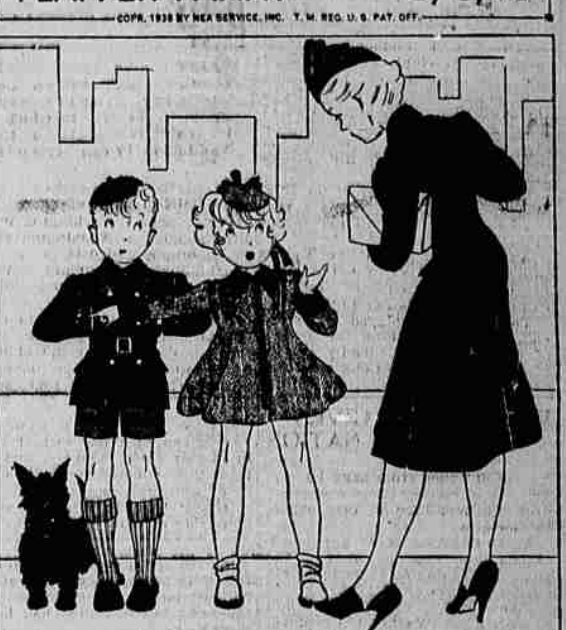

"Will you walk this way, sir?"

and what had once been fertile by trees in one day and a huge farm land was now lying bare and radio tower snapped off in California's wild storm. Power was fortunately off in all cities as power lines were snapped in two and lying all along the streets and highways.
