Creations of Art With Needlework

SET FOR MOTHER AND BABY BY RUTH ORR

When the new baby and mother are on exhibition, they want to look their best. What could be more entrancing than crocheted jackets to match? They're dainty, attractive, and useful. They're made of soft wool. A style as charming as this is not limited to infants and their mothers; for, grandmother, great-aunt, or anyone would welcome the warmth the jacket offers on chilly days.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand, illustrated directions; also what crochets hook, what material, and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 478 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address: News-Review, Needlework Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

POET'S CORNER

GEORGE WASHINGTON

When Washington fought at Valley Forge,
He fought against the foe;
His men were on the verge of giving up,
But onward they must go.

They were scarce of food and clothing,
And their feet were on the ground,
Many were sick with fever,
Few were well and sound.

But on and on they fought,
And soon regained their strength,
With Washington their hero,
To them victory came at length.

HISTORIC WALNUT TREE DEDICATED

The historic walnut tree at the Junior high school grounds was officially dedicated yesterday at a Washington day assembly program as a memorial to the late Mrs. W. R. (Caroline Haines) Willis. The tree was grown from a seed secured from the home of George Washington at Mt. Vernon. The presentation of a metal plaque, as a memorial to Mrs. Willis, was sponsored by Mrs. George S. Child of San Francisco, a close friend of Mrs. Willis and former resident of Roseburg.

The program included a sketch of Mrs. Willis' life written by Mrs. Child and read by Mrs. C. E. Roberts.

Acceptance and remarks of appreciation by R. R. Brand, principal of the junior high school, preceded placing of the plaque by Tom Wharton.

Other features of the program included a violin solo, "Musket in G," by Heethoven, played by Althea Hutchins, accompanied by Anita Young; a one-act play, "Truth for A Day," by Helen T. Darby, presented by Shirley Parsons, Noanle B. Morrison, Patricia McClintock, Margaret Cordon, Marion Church and Claressa Mahley, members of the Dramatics club, with Mary Margaret Ellsworth, student director, and Scott Williams, faculty advisor; group singing, "America the Beautiful," led by Ralph Church; pledge to the flag; dedicatory prayer by Rev. C. A. Edwards.
