COOKING AND CLOTHING CLUBS HOLD MEETING

The Cooking and the Clothing clubs of the Glenary school 4-H's met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. M. Nash, the clothing leader and with Mrs. J. A. Hooten, the cooking club leader demonstrating cream sauces.

After the sauces were prepared they were used as the basis for serving a light small vegetable lunch.

Each club will soon have its work completed and will then start on a canning project to be carried through the summer under the guidance of Mrs. C. H. Munson.

The Glenary community club held a rousing session at the schoolhouse last Friday evening.

A packed house greeted the young people. The local pupils put on a short, snappy program that was followed by entertainment furnished by a student group from the Roseburg Junior high under the guidance of Mr. Williams, science instructor. County Superintendent Mrs. Stella Quine was guest of honor. The proceeds from a plate supper was applied to a scholarship fund.
