AUTHENTIC SURVEYS PROVE CONCLUSIVELY THAT LEGITIMATE RETAIL SHOPPING IS ADVANTAGEOUS

"A careful analytical survey of the comparative costs between merchandise purchased from retail stores and from door-to-door canvassers proves conclusively that the customer receives more for the money expended from the regular retail establishments.

"A highly developed sales argument advanced by a smooth, fast talker together with a cheap but inferior line of merchandise have created in the minds of many women the impression that they are getting better value from peddlers than anywhere else. Prospective customers of agents are informed that through elimination of the wholesalers and their subsequent profits that the door-to-door sales people can offer them merchandise at a lower cost. However, natural this supposition, it has been proven without a doubt that there are more steps required in the distribution of the peddler's wares than through the regular retail channels.

"All investigations prove that dollar for dollar the retail stores offer far the greater values."

—JOHN A. STURGIS, Ph. D.
National Authority on Distribution.
