DOUBLE GOLDEN WEDDING TO BE CELEBRATED SUNDAY

A double golden wedding, in which the 70-year-old brides are twin sisters, will be the unique event on the social calendar Sunday, March 13. The event will be celebrated at the Charles Munson home on Roberts creek in honor of Mr. Munson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Munson, of Arcadia, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler of Portland, who were married at a double ceremony at Marshalltown, Iowa, in 1888.

Another unusual feature is the fact that all of the witnesses of the ceremony 50 years ago will be present for the golden wedding celebration. This is possible because each couple witnessed for the other in the double wedding of a half century ago and no other persons were present except the officiating minister.

Anna and Louisa Luths were born March 22, 1868, in Switzerland, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luths who were the parents of eight children. The girls were 16 years of age when the family came to the United States.

On the date of March 13, 1888, four years after their arrival in this country and nine days before their 20th birthday, the twin sisters were married, Anna becoming the wife of Oren Munson and Louisa being made the bride of Charles Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Munson engaged in farming in Iowa until 15 years ago when they moved to Arcadia, California. They are the parents of three sons, John Munson, Arcadia; Charles Munson, Roberts Creek; and George Munson, Ukiah. The girls have 11 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler remained in Marshalltown, engaging in farming and general business activities, until 25 years ago, when they moved to Portland where Mr. Wheeler conducts a fuel business. They are the parents of a son, Roy Wheeler, Portland, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Shanda, Cottage Grove. They have two grandchildren.

Celebration of the golden wedding at the farm home on Roberts creek will be confined largely to a family reunion. It is expected that the sons and daughters of both couples will be present to enjoy the anniversary dinner and a day of visiting.
