JIFFY-CROCHET CHAIR SET

By RUTH ORR

PATTERN NO. 529

Literally, a few hours work will produce this bright new chair set, with decorations of puffy pop-corns. As you can see, the filet pattern is so easy, and the cotton used is heavy enough so it doesn't require too many stitches to complete the set.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand, illustrated directions with block and space diagrams to aid you; also what crochet hook, what material, and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 529 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address News-Review, Needlework Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

Lenten Devotions

By W. C. FAUCETTE

"Who touched me" There was insistence and a commanding demand in the Master's voice. The multitude surged and swirled around him like a mighty ocean eddy. A pallid woman, nerved beyond her little strength by a great hope and faith that thrilled her like wine, was thrusting herself into every opening in the milling mob that brought her nearer to the calm figure who centered the interest of the vast throng. Her sunken eyes doubly brilliant in their setting of her bloodless face shone with an unnatural brilliance as her anxious heart repeated over and over, "If I may but touch His garment I shall be made whole!"

Twelve years of weakness and discouragement were behind that hope. The best physicians were unable to help her. Suddenly a lurch of the throng opened a momentary avenue to the One she sought. Darting through she reached a trembling finger and touched the hem of His garment. Then the human current swished Him from her.

But the single touch was enough. Wonder of wonders! The old feeling of full health and strength flowed through her like a stream. Turning away, and thankful in her womanly modesty that she had been healed with so little notice of the crowd, she was arrested by His eyes and His voice. "Who touched me?" And she came and falling at his feet told all.

Perhaps some eyes that read this realize a malady that is not physical. A sickness of soul caused by the universal sin sickness. Only a touch! Or perhaps a gnawing secret grief is eating the heart. Touch Him! Or the world is disappointing—touch Him! "Who touched me?"
