TWO-COLOR BREAD TRAY DOILY

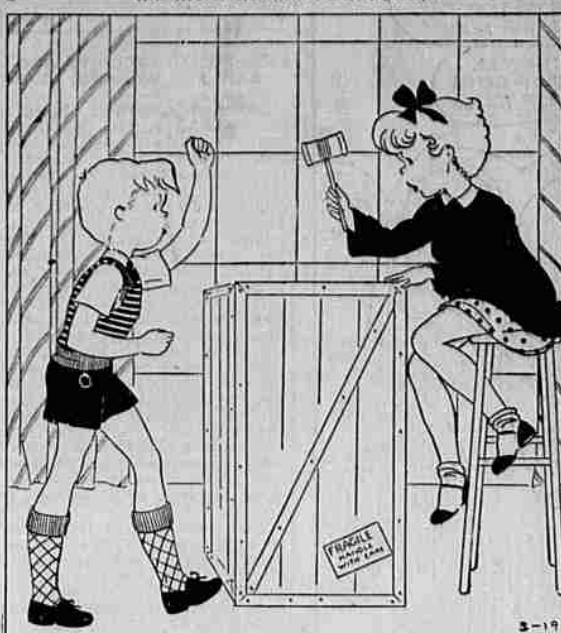

By RUTH ORR
PATTERN NO. 593

"Jiffy-Crochet" is the right term for this charming bread tray doily. Mercerized crochet and knitting cotton is the material used, so the work is complete in short order. As it's pictured, it measures about 10x14 inches, but by leaving off the last band of contrasting color, it's about 7x11 inches, if that size is nearer your requirements. The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand, illustrated directions; also what crochet hook, what material, and how much you will need; and illustrations of stitches used.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 593 and enclose 10 cents. As it's pictured, it measures about 10x14 inches, but by leaving off the last band of contrasting color, it's about 7x11 inches, if that size is nearer your requirements. American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER

The nineteenth birthday of the founding of the American Legion in Paris was celebrated Tuesday night, March 15, at the K. P. hall by a joint meeting of Umpqua post and its auxiliary.

A short entertaining program designed to last only until nine, when they received the national broadcast for the Legion, was presented by Mrs. Claude Baker, program chairman.

After a rousing "Hall, Hall, the Gang's All Here," by everyone, Mrs. Fred Kinsel, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Edward Hines, gave two lively tap dance numbers, accompanied by Miss Betty Owens.

Miss Eva Baker gave one of her irrefutable readings wherein she was audience and actors. The group then tried "Tipperary" and "When You Were a Tulip" at the same time. Tipperary beat!

The senior high group, Bob Briscoe, Andy Korn and Harry Turnbull sang a group of songs so entertainingly that the group sang with them on "Home on the Range." Again they were called back to sing "Bl. Mir. Bl. du Schelen."

Commander Adam Flurry introduced Judge Carl Wimberly, the first commander of the local post, who presented last year's commander, L. A. Dillard, with a past commander's pin from the Legion. He followed this with an inspiring discussion of the Legion and its principles through these 19 years and its relation to world problems today.

At the close of Judge Wimberly's talk Mrs. L. A. Dillard, refreshment chairman, and Mrs. Ned Dixon brought in the birthday cake with 19 lighted candles. Commander Flurry accepted it from Mrs. Walter Fisher, auxiliary president.

Mrs. Fisher then thanked all those who helped on the memorial drive. She brought out the point that the men actually saved more by their help than the women raised for the trees. It thus proved to be doubly a joint project.

The last tree planting took place last Sunday, Mrs. Fisher said, when the men finished the project. The group met at 8:30 and ate their lunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baker. Mrs. Fisher brought out the fact that the drive will be formally dedicated Memorial day. At this time copper markers will be on each individually planted tree. Wreaths will be placed at the foot of these on that day.

A large highway marker has been designed by W. A. Pollock of the forest service. V. Harpham has graciously consented for the forestry to aid this community project. Mrs. Fisher says, and the marker will be made by South Umpqua CCC camp probably.

Commander Flurry declared a moments silence for the memory of their comrade, Charles Porter, who was fatally injured two weeks ago on the Memorial drive. While Mrs. M. A. Porter played "Taps," Mrs. Claude Baker read:

Dear one, rest! In the west noble night Lulls the day on her breast Sweet good night! Now away to thy rest.

The meeting was turned over for the next half hour to Mrs. Robert Irving who conducted musical games with Virginia and Anita Young at the piano.

Marching in a group to the beautifully appointed luncheon table proved the high and satisfying point of a fine evening. The refreshment committee was Mrs. L. A. Dillard, chairman; Mrs. Victor Miesell, Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Jr., Mrs. Lester Wimberly and Mrs. Irving Riegel. Mrs. Ned Dixon who made the huge birthday cake, cut and served it while Mrs. Walter Fisher poured.

B. Hubar on East Cass street for contract bridge.

Those enjoying the evening included Mrs. Roy Catching, a guest, and Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. Ralph Quine, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. J. R. Wharton and the hostess, Mrs. Hubar.
