CROCHET RUG OF WOOL OR RAGS

BY RUTH ORR

PATTERN No. 451

There's nothing that will add so much to the coziness of your home as a hand-made rug. This design is especially good in that the sections are all made in the same way, and can be joined in any number of ways. As we've shown the piece here it makes a nice rug for hearth or bathroom. By adding more triangles according to the instructions, you can obtain a rug of any size you desire, even to room size. Here, we've used heavy yarn, but any sort of rug, cut in strips, will serve equally well.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand, illustrated directions with diagrams to aid you; also what crocheting hook, what material, and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 451 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address News-Review, Needlework Department, Roseburg, Ore.

CHILD FILM STARS ASSURED SECURITY

Earnings Safely Invested to Provide Income When They Come of Age.

HOLLYWOOD, April 14.—(AP)—Shirley Temple, when she comes of age, will not have to go to court to obtain the fortune she amassed as a child movie star.

Neither will Deanna Durbin, Jane Withers, Mickey Rooney, Freddie Bartholomew or any other of the movie youngsters whose names are emblazoned on theatre marquees.

The present plight of Jackie Coogan, who has sued his mother and his stepfather for an accounting of his film earnings as a child, which he estimates at $4,000,000, seems to have been anticipated by the studios and the parents of the present-day juvenile stars.

Deanna Durbin, for instance: Her earnings (estimated at $800 a day) are handled by her father, James Durbin, who is investing them in life insurance and real estate.

Jackie Coogan's checks from the movie studio are deposited in his name to the Jackie Coogan estate account in a bank, which is his financial guardian. The bank must obtain court approval of every investment.

Shirley Temple's earnings from the movies and commercial royalties, which run quite a way up in four figures, are well regulated by her contract, at least insofar as the movie salary is concerned. Clauses were inserted in her contract at the insistence of Winfield Sheehan and elaborated on by Joseph M. Schenck and Darryl Zanuck in her new deal, that specify when, where and how much of her money shall be invested.

Freddie Bartholomew's finances have been the subject of much litigation but now that is custody has been settled in the hands of Aunt Clara, a monetary program has been worked out and he will be financially independent when he is old enough to vote.

In Jackie Coogan's case, he was earning $5,000 a week 10 years ago, and his father took charge of all the money. Jackie getting only $6.25 a week. His father was killed in an automobile accident shortly before Jackie became of age, and his mother married Arthur L. Bernstein.

Bernstein and his wife say Jackie has received all he is entitled to, and that under California law the money earned by minors goes to the parents.
