BANQUET IS LARGE AFFAIR AT SUTHERLIN

SUTHERLIN, April 27.—About sixty attended the banquet given by the Sutherlin Progressive Club on Monday night at the Odd Fellows hall, honoring the Oakland Development club. After the dinner, Frank O. Young, president of the local club gave an address which was followed by a talk by Ed Young of Oakland and Martin Lloyd of Sutherlin. Much interesting discussion took place regarding both clubs and it is thought that much good will result in the re-togetherness affair. An acrobatic dance by Miss Shirley Culver, of Cottage Grove, was a pleasing feature. Among those present from Oakland were: Messrs R. Stearns, Cockeram, Sparks, Garrison, English, Medley, Wagner, Fortin, Carlson, Bliss, Robinson, Truit, Bridges, Beason, Worthen, Mahoney, Peterson, Copeland, Gildersleeve, Adams, Ed Stearns, Bovington and Young.

The following committees have been appointed by Mr. Young, president. Membership, Maurice Vogelbeil; finance, H. O. Young; Thompson; agriculture, J. W. Culver; advertising, W. Haynor; and courtesy, L. D. Robertson. The next meeting will be held by the local club on May 16.

CARD CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING

FETCHING PANELED FROCK PATTERN 4793

When Anne Adams designs a frock—it's certain to be the last word in smartness and easy making—and this is especially true of Pattern 4793! There's a bit of the unusual about its brief little sleeve—and instead of the gypsy-bright sash you may nip in your waistline with an narrow tie-belt of the dress's own fabric; both versions are smart. Of course you've noticed the new, becoming neckline, softly gathered bodice, and bright button accents! How would you like this frock in dainty synthetic crepe or sheer for afternoons?

Pattern 4793 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric and 3 yards ribbon. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

GAY HAT AND PURSE TO CROCHET

By RUTH ORR
PATTERN No. 371
Your nice, new Easter bonnet will never do for everyday wear, all season. For this knockabout use, you'll want something that looks well, but is inexpensive. Well, here it is. Use very simple crochet stitches, heavy mercerized cotton, and you'll have an attractive hat and purse in almost less time than it takes to tell it. This pattern should appeal especially because it includes directions for each size from 19-23 inches.

Tomorrow: An Assortment of Dollies to Crochet.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand, illustrated directions; also what crochet hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 371 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address News-Review, Needlework Dept., Roseburg, Oregon.

Daily Devotions

By DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

For fitness and delicacy of touch few things can match the revelation by Jesus of Himself to the two travelers on the road to Emmaus. Unrecognized by them He seeks first to open their eyes to the truths of the Holy Scriptures, so that they might come to understand their present problem in the light of what was written there. His first concern as ever, was not first that He, but that God's truth be recognized. After they discovered that it was Jesus, they said, did not our hearts burn within us, while He talked with us by the way, O Christ our eyes are hidden—we do not understand that in the warm stirring of our hearts, Thou art nigh us. We do not recognize when human fellowship becomes deep, and dear, that Thou art in the midst. Help us to see Thee now. Amen.
