Daily Devotions

BY DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

One day Jesus met Simon, and He said unto him: "Thou art Simon, impetuous, reckless, unstable, temperamental; but I will make you Peter, dependable, constant, steady, reliable, fearless." Peter is to go through the great testing, the tribulation of Jesus. The harrow drawn by cruel men is to pass over him. Jesus sees what lies ahead of both Himself and Peter and He said: "I have prayed for thee that thy faith in me fail not in the dark hour." No cowardice Petor. Be strong for the sake of all who shall follow after. Thou hast called us, our Father, into the membership and fellowship of the church, which is Thy body. We know that if one member suffer, the whole body suffers too. We fear, therefore, for those who have grown indifferent, for those who are defeated by old habits. Keep us true to Thee for Jesus sake. Amen.

Come and honor your mother and hear the gospel. 6:30 B. Y. P. U., young people's service. Come and enjoy this service. All young people invited. Howard Wood, leader. 7:30, gospel song service. Sermon theme "The First Martyr." Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., prayer and praise service. We have been greatly helped by Bro. Morgan's messages the past two weeks. Come and help us carry on for God. L. S. Cox, pastor.

First Methodist Episcopal Church, S. Raynor Smith, minister. Sunday school at 9:45. Morning worship at 11 o'clock with a mother's day sermon by the pastor, on "Susanna Wesley, Christian Mother." Music by the choir directed by Miss Helene Robinson with Mrs. Gordon Stewart at the organ. Epworth league at 6:30. At the evening worship hour, 7:30, the young people will present a Mother's day service, including a candlelight installation service for the officers of the league for the coming year. Tuesday from 2-4 and 7:30-10 there will be an international fellowship tea and exhibit of curios from Indian and the Holy Land with stereopticon lecture on India at 8 o'clock. The offering taken will be used for missions. The public is invited.
