MRS. ROBERT CARVER JR. TO SPEAK TO EPISCOPAL WOMEN AT LUNCHEON

The women of St. George's Episcopal church have been most cordially invited to hear the president of the women's auxiliary of the Protestant Episcopal church of the diocese of Oregon, Mrs. Robert Carver Jr., of Portland, speak at a delightful one o'clock no-hostess luncheon Saturday, May 7th, at the Little Gypsy tearoom in the Kohlhaugen building.

Mrs. Perry Smith, of this city is in charge of arrangements for the no-hostess luncheon. Mrs. Carver will be accompanied by the secretary of religious education of the auxiliary of Oregon, Mrs. Robert Arneson, and also by Mrs. George P. Nowlands, both of Portland. The three are en route to Las Vegas, Nevada, to attend the annual synod of the Episcopal church.

NON-DENOMINATIONAL RELIGIOUS MATERIAL TO BE SENT TO RURAL CHILDREN

Miss Jane Chase, who is diocesan secretary for the Episcopal church of Oregon work for isolated, has arrived here to make arrangements with Rev. Perry Smith, rector of St. George's Episcopal church in this city, for distributing non-denominational religious material to rural children and all children in isolated places who are unable to attend Sunday school.

This material is furnished without any charge to children who cannot attend Sunday school or who have no way of receiving religious training. Anyone desiring to have it mailed to them weekly has been asked to contact Rev. Perry Smith, Roseburg, Oregon.

PUBLIC INVITED TO SILVER TEA SATURDAY

A Camp Fire Daughters silver tea will be given Saturday afternoon from three to five o'clock by the Pottawatomie Camp Fire group, honoring mothers and especially honoring the mothers of all Roseburg Camp Fire girls.

Proceeds will be used toward the summer camp fund.

An elaborate program has been planned which includes instrumental music by Lavola McMillen, Andy Corn, Maurice Adams, Helen Jane Kerr, James Wale, Pauline and Beryl Caskey and Claribel Roslund; vocal music by Betty Marsters, Betty Pattison and Miss Frances Hardy; readings by Virginia Roslund, Marceline Ferguson and Eva Baker. During the afternoon presentation will be made of a free week at camp for the winner of the doughnut sale contest.

Each of the Roseburg Camp Fire groups has prepared a display to be exhibited at the tea and much secrecy surrounds their preparation. Camp Fire symbols and floral decorations of purple and white will provide the motif.

The public is cordially invited.
