LADY LIONS INVITE PUBLIC TO BENEFIT CARD PARTY, MAY 18

Contract bridge players of Roseburg and vicinity will have an opportunity to enjoy a charming 1:30 o'clock dessert-luncheon affair the afternoon of Wednesday, May 18, at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse, and at the same time assist the Lady Lions to raise funds for the Lions club eyeglasses project to furnish glasses for children in need of them.

Arrangements for this most worthwhile benefit are in charge of Mrs. D. W. Hellwell. The demand for children's eyeglasses far exceeds the amount of money on hand held by the Lions club for this project and the Lady Lions have planned this interesting benefit affair in the hope of swelling this fund to such an extent that a large number of children can be supplied with the necessary eyeglasses.

The dessert-luncheon will be served at 1:30 o'clock, followed by the contract bridge play. The players will pivot at their respective tables. Roseburg merchants are donating interesting prizes for the party, so that the entire proceeds of the affair can go to the eyeglass fund. First and second high score prizes will be given as well as a traveling slam prize and a door prize.

Mrs. R. C. Davis and Mrs. Ivan Pickens are joint chairmen of the cards; Mrs. Albert Miceli is in charge of decorations; Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp is chairman of the dessert-luncheon committee; Mrs. M. H. Muncy is serving chairman and Mrs. J. A. Hart is in charge of publicity.
