STATE MUSIC EXAMS GIVEN PUPILS TUESDAY BY LOUIS ARTAU

Louis Artau of the University of Oregon school of music spent Tuesday in Roseburg at the studio of Gladys H. Strano giving state examinations in piano as outlined by the Oregon Music Teachers' association. Fifteen students of Mrs. H. F. English and Miss Strong took the examinations and passed with excellent ratings.

The examinations cover technique and studies as well as repertoire and require a well rounded course of study. Of the seven examinations which comprise the complete course of study, the first four were given at this time. The object of the work is to raise the standards of teaching and to provide an incentive to serious study which leads to true musicianship.

Mr. Artau expressed himself as highly pleased with the quality of work done and was very encouraging to the students and teachers.

Certificates have been issued to those who passed the examinations and will be publicly presented. The pupils of Mrs. English will receive theirs at her recitals in Oakland and Myrtle Creek and Miss Strong's pupils will receive theirs on Saturday evening, June 4, at her public recital at the South Methodist church.

Pupils of Mrs. English who took the examinations were: Betty Jean Ady, Patty Campbell, Arlene Dieckman and Mrs. Louis Eggleton.

Pupils of Miss Strong who took the examinations were: Betty Swift, Ruth Heck, Lou Helen Strango, Barbara Randolph, Barbara Young, Anita Young, Carolyn Cordon, Florence Hamilton, Detto Owen, Faith Young and Virginia Young.

INSPECTION HELD AT AUXILIARY MEETING

The annual department inspection of the United States War Veterans auxiliary was held at the Roseburg armory, May 12, with Mrs. Margaret Rodgers, department senior vice-president, officiating. The inspection of the ritual was carried out by the color team and officers, followed by a commentary speech by the department officer in charge. Plans were made for attendance of department convention to be held at McMinnville, Oregon, during the month of July. The following delegates and alternates were elected: Mrs. Nettie Craig, Mrs. Zanna Keller, Mrs. Arnie DeWitt and alternates Mrs. Addie Adams, Miss Lenore Adams and Miss Orena Adams.

Following the inspection the auxiliary presented Mrs. Rodgers with a beautiful gift.

The national convention will be held at Portland, Oregon, this year and a large number of Roseburg members are planning to attend as this city will be well represented.

SEWING CIRCLE MEETS FRIDAY

The U. S. W. V. sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. Frank Compton Friday with Mrs. W. O. Clinger acting as hostess. The main business of the afternoon was taking photographs which are to appear in the department year book. Mr. Wallace Robertson took a large group picture of the drill team and auxiliary officers and members.

Later in the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mrs. Arline Slattery, Mrs. Frank Compton, Mrs. Percy Webb, Sr., Mrs. Clara T.
