Be Sure to State Size When Ordering Pattern.

PATTERN 4813

Smart—With or Without Bolero

This Anne Adams frock has dainty little sleeves for hot days when keeping cool is so important.

The peak at the front of the skirt, the gathers of the bodice, the collar—these are all youthful and captivating, and simple to cut and sew. You can wear the bolero (which may match or contrast) with other dresses besides this one pictured. That's the beauty of separate jackets: they give your wardrobe more variety and freshness.

This style takes amazingly small yardage considering the bolero; it is therefore inexpensive to make, whether you choose a silk, rayon or cotton.

Pattern 4813 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 takes 32 yards 36 inch fabric and 3 1/2 yards edging. It is illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Dress up for summer! Order your copy of the NEW ANNE ADAMS SUMMER BOOK of patterns. Learn how to have a smart warm-weather wardrobe that's fashion-right, economical, easy to make! Planning a vacation? See the active and spectator sports outfits, afternoon sheers, evening finery! Staying home? Have flatteringly porch frocks and gay sun-dresses! Platter for bride and graduate! CREATIONS OF ART WITH NEEDLEWORK

GLENDALE, June 3.—Mrs. A. W. Graff presented Mary Ann Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bowman, in a piano recital at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mary Ann, who is just 8 years old, has only taken lessons for the past four months and showed remarkable ability under the tutelage of Mrs. Graff. She opened her program by explaining and demonstrating her teacher's methods for beginners, and announced her own program throughout the afternoon. Mrs. Graff accompanied her in three duet numbers, and also accompanied little Dorothy Phillips in her song, "Home on the Range." Mary Ann and little Dorothy tap danced to the piano accompaniment of Rose Anna and Frances Graff.

It is the plan of Mrs. Graff to open a summer school for beginners, who will have class work along with their individual lessons, paying particular attention to children pre-school age.

MRS. BEVER IS HOSTESS TO COMMITTEE

SUTHERLIN, June 3.—Mrs. Elton Bever entertained the committee of the P. T. club at her home Friday afternoon. Plans were discussed for an evening social to be given at the Bever home, formerly known as the Walte estate, June 24th. Several attractions will make the affair interesting and an outdoor tea garden will be featured. This place is well known as one of the show places of the valley. Mrs. Bever served delightful refreshments to Mrs. Jack Culver, Jr., Mrs. Leon Gleason, Mrs. Leslie Gleason, Mrs. Walter Stowe and Mrs. Harry Chenoweth.

GLENDALE, June 3.—Mrs. Walker E. Purvine entertained the members and friends of the Merry-Go-Round club with a two o'clock dessert luncheon at the Glendale hotel Tuesday afternoon. Later the ladies went to the home of Mrs. E. B. Harvey where the afternoon was spent playing bridge. Prize for high score for the afternoon went to Miss Luella Cunningham; second high, Mrs. B. J. Purvine; consolation, Mrs. Bessie Selmers and traveling to Mrs. A. J. Fawcett.

GRANGE MEETS TUESDAY NIGHT

CAMAS VALLEY, June 3.—The regular grange meeting was held Tuesday evening after which a social hour was enjoyed and a pancake supper served in the basement. Plans were made for a few members to accept the invitation to Evergreen grange Saturday evening.

NEW GUINEA GOAL OF FLYING SAVANTS

HONOLULU, June 3.—(AP)—A flying laboratory bearing six men for scientific research in wild New Guinea landed here from San Diego, Calif., today.

The huge flying boat, Guba, meaning "sudden storm," alighted in the harbor with its commander, Richard Archbold, and party of scientists, 18 hours and nine minutes after starting the 2624-mile flight from California.

Two years after alighting at Hollandia, New Guinea, the scientists hope to bring back to the American museum of natural history specimens of beautiful birds and other animal life despite unhealthful jungles and high mountains, with their head-hunting Papuans and Malays.

MEDFORD STUDENT DIES IN CAR UPSET

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—(AP)—Frank H. Ingram, 20, Medford, Oregon, was killed early today when his car overturned a few miles from here.

Professor Garibaldi said friends of the dead youth informed him Ingram was a student at Sacramento junior college and was on his way to Medford to visit his mother.

His car, the corner said, plunged over a thirty-five foot levee on the Garden highway. C. Morrison, nearby farmer, attracted to the scene by the barking of his dogs found Ingram's body beside the overturned automobile.

MRS. CONDRAY HOSTESS TO SUNSHINE CLUB

AZALEA, June 3.—Mrs. Ora Condray was hostess for the Sunshine club at her home Thursday afternoon. Visiting and fancy work took up the pleasant afternoon hours. A short business meeting was held.

Lovely bouquets of flowers lent a colorful note to the rooms. Covers were placed for Mrs. Walter Williams, Mrs. Lewis LaFayette, both from Portland, Mrs. Cora Chadwick, Miss Florence Norman, Miss Audrey Huff, guests for the afternoon; members present were: Mrs. Rachel Jenks, Mrs. John Jantzer, Mrs. William Jantzer and son, Jackie, Mrs. Halbert Booth, Mrs. Henry Gadecke, Mrs. Esther Hazen, Mrs. Warren Hazen, Mrs. Forrest Farman, Mrs. Jim Pickett and granddaughter, Gay, Mrs. Her Hunt, Mrs. D.
