Talk Too Much

IT SEEMS as though people in public life just cannot resist the temptation to talk. Many of them talk far too much—and because they are in public life, what they say is broadcast and published.

A classic example of one in a high place who talked too much recently was the case of Harry Hopkins, WPA administrator, and his "influence" upon the Iowa primary elections.

Before the election Hopkins, though in his position he should not have done so, plugged for Otha D. Wearin as a new deal candidate. Iowa democrats thereupon nominated Gillette. Wearin's opponent.

Now Harry Hopkins issues a statement for publication in which he says in part: "The Iowa vote shows that the repeated reminders I gave to WPA workers that they were to vote as they pleased, were not disregarded, as some predicted they would be. I am glad to witness this refutation of those who accused us of playing politics."

In addition, as one born and brought up in Iowa, I want to say that I sincerely hope Senator Gillette will be returned to the United States senate."

Small boys have a term denoting disgust which is aptly applied to that statement—"Horse-feathers."

Since when in America has it been necessary for any official to REMIND voters that they may vote as they please?

Undoubtedly Iowa voters are red-blooded American citizens and viewed Hopkins' political activity in their state with disgust—and voted for Gillette. He surely talked too much before election.

Public Hearing

DAY after tomorrow, Friday morning at 10 a. m., at the Douglas county courthouse in the circuit court room, the district engineer of the army engineer corps will conduct a hearing on the proposal to provide navigation on the Umpqua river from Scottsburg to Roseburg for light draft boats and barges.

This will be a public hearing. All are invited to attend. No more important matter has ever been discussed in this county. Some have professed to misunderstand the purpose of this hearing. Let it be clearly understood by all that what is wanted is an EXAMINATION of the Umpqua river and the economic resources of this area to determine whether or not the expenditure of public funds for the purpose of providing navigation is warranted. No one wants such an expenditure made if it is foolish and wasteful. But until the matter is fully investigated by the government engineers charged with doing such work, we have no way of knowing whether or not the resources of this area should be released by water transportation, or kept in "cold storage" for development in about the year 2009 by the railroad company.

THESE turkeys, it seems, are remarkable birds. They grow fat on the grasshoppers that eat the grass, and then they are slaughtered for human food. After that, their feathers go back into the ground to enrich the soil so as to grow more grass to feed more grasshoppers to fatten more turkeys to provide more feathers to enrich the soil to grow more grass to feed more grasshoppers to fatten more turkeys to— Hey, for the love of Pete, will somebody please shut this thing off before it gets to the ears of Secretary Wallace and gives him heart failure!

IT looks like a special act of congress might be necessary to save us from this dastardly threat of over-production.

F. R. COMMENTS ON GILLETTE'S VICTORY

Good System Carried Out Perfectly, He Asserts; Hopkins Backed.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, commenting today on the re-nomination of Senator Gillette in the Iowa democratic primaries, said it was a perfectly good carrying out of a perfectly good system of party government.

Harry L. Hopkins, the works progress administrator, who had said he favored Representative Wearin, Gillette's principal opponent, commented earlier that the senator's victory showed PWA was not playing politics.

The president, when asked at a press conference whether he would send a letter congratulating Gillette, replied he undoubtedly would see Gillette when he returned to Washington.

Wearin has claimed white house support. In response to another query whether he deemed it proper for Hopkins to endorse Wearin before the vote, the president backed up Hopkins and said if he had been born in Iowa and had gone to college there, as had Hopkins, he would have felt absolutely at liberty to express his views on the primary.

Hopkins Comments "The Iowa vote," said Hopkins, "shows that the repeated reminders I gave to WPA workers that they were to vote as they pleased were not disregarded, as some predicted they would be."

"I am glad to witness this refutation of those who accused us of playing politics. In addition, as one born and brought up in Iowa, I want to say that I sincerely hope Senator Gillette will be returned to the U. S. senate."

HASTINGS, Ia., June 7.—(AP)—Representative Otha D. Wearin, defeated in the Iowa democratic senatorial primary, disclosed today that he had sent a telegram of congratulation to Senator Guy M. Gillette, the victorious candidate. The representative, who has the support of WPA Chief Harry L. Hopkins and the inferred backing of James Roosevelt, would not comment when asked whether he would support Gillette in the fall general election.

"I may have a statement in a few days," was his answer to the support query. Wearin said the text of his telegram was as follows: "Congratulations, Guy. Extend my best regards to Rose (Mrs. Gillette) and Mark (the senator's son)."

DUST BOWL HORDE BATTLES TO EXIST

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—"New pioneers" of the Pacific north-west trails a fugitive horde of weary migrant women and their children, who, in dilapidated automobiles, are rattling today out of the nation's dust bowls, across the Rocky mountains and on to Oregon—a country they thought was a land of promise. For every farmer resettled with money and land from the government, a dozen others have drifted to the back roads on the fringe of civilization, scratching out pitiful garden patches in the timber, working for subsistence in the fields and living in hovels.

The records of the farm security administration are filled with happy interviews from families who qualify in money, implements, stock and intelligence. For the majority of others, unaware of and unknown, there is only desolation.

The northwest regional planning commission, estimated that 36,000 families lost dust bowl homes in seven years. About 10,000,000 acres, or 150,000 new economic farm units, may ultimately add to the cultivated area in Oregon, Washington and Idaho through irrigation, drainage, clearing and flood control. Unless present construction schedules are speeded, only 10,000 new farms will be available in the next five years—2000 short of the number needed to care for the refugees arriving in the northwest in the last 18 months.

CUBS WIN OPENER FROM N. Y. GIANTS

Teams Face Doubleheader Today; Cleveland Holds to American Lead.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Cubs triumphed in the opening battle of pitching, and home runs, have a 1 1/2 game lead in the National League today, but they can lose it all in this afternoon's doubleheader. Hubbell is due to hurl one game for the Giants, and it's not often he gives a rival a chance to pull away.

Chicago won the opener 4 to 2 yesterday on the combination of Lee's seven-inning fling and the four-py pyrrhic of Herman and Marty. Lee, who had pitched three straight shutouts, his string broken after 25 innings by Ott's 11th homer of the year in the fourth frame. The Chicago pitcher tied the count himself in the fifth when he singled, took second on a felder's choice and galloped home on Reynolds' base hit.

The rest of the Cubs' runs came in the seventh and ended Melton's stay on the mound. Herman broke deadlock with a homer, his first of the season; Demaree singled and Marty finished the job with his homer.

Indians Stretch Lead Meanwhile the Cleveland Indians, whose nearest rivals in the American league all are in the east, won one the hard way from Boston, 7 to 5. Since leaving home last week, the Tribe has won two out of three each from the Philadelphia Athletics and third-place Washington Senators, and the first from Boston, which is a good fourth in the standings.

The victory again stretched the Indians' lead to four games as the second-place New York Yankees went down, 8-5, before the Chicago White Sox. Thornton Lee, Chicago hurler, scattered nine hits well and pasted a homer himself to send Ruffing to the showers in the seventh. Five hits and four runs in the second already had ruined Ruffing's chances.

In the day's other games, the St. Louis Browns smacked four Washington pitchers for 15 hits and won, 11-8, despite a five-man Senator rally in the seventh. Alton Byrks' eleventh homer, the Detroit Tigers beat out the Athletics, 5-4, although the Macknuch had the winning run on base in the ninth when John's drive fell just short of the stands and was taken for the last out.

Brooklyn's Dodgers hung up their fifth victory in seven games in a four-run fifth inning, plus brilliant relief hurling by Tamulis after Medwick and Paiggett had hit for the circuit in the same frame, enabled them to turn back the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-6. The Philadelphia-Cincinnati and Boston-Pittsburgh games were rained out.

ARIZMENDI HOLDS AMBERS TO DRAW

By ROBERT MYERS LOS ANGELES, June 8.—(AP)—Baby Arizmendi upset many an apple from the cart last night when he battled Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers to a draw in a wild, non-title fight before 10,000 screaming fans at the Olympic auditorium.

Today the veteran of a thousand and one nights in a prize ring, came out flatly and predicted that Welterweight Champion Henry Armstrong would knock Ambers out when they meet in New York July 26.

Arizmendi should be an authority on the subject. Two months ago he took a beating—but never a knockdown—from Armstrong in a vicious ten-rounder at the Olym-

Game Nearly Ends in Riot as DiMaggio Protests 1st Base Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—(AP)—Dominic, youngest and most docile of the baseball DiMaggios, outfielder for the San Francisco Seals in the Pacific coast baseball league caused a near riot at the Portland Beavers stadium June 7.

All Dominic did was protest he was not thrown out at first in the last of the eleventh inning last night with the bases loaded and the whole San Francisco team stomped onto the field.

Dominic claimed he was hit in the foot by the ball thrown to first base. Empire Cole ruled him out, retiring the side and ending the game. When the fans and players swarmed the field and threatened Cole with an untimely end, the boys with the big feet and brass buttons from the law and order league came to his rescue.

The Beavers took an early lead by scoring three runs in the first inning. The Seals scored two in the fourth and tied the score in the ninth. The Beavers made two runs in their half of the 11th and the Seals had scored one run when Dominic was ruled out.

The league leading Sacramento Solons increased their lead to three games by dimming the Hollywood Stars, 6 to 4. Cullip, Solon outfielder, accounted for two runs when he blasted a homer with one on.

After losing to Los Angeles, 4 to 1, Manager Levitt of the Seattle team announced he had hospitalized his pitching staff by signing Walter Beck, right-handed hurler who was released a week ago by the Hollywood Stars. Beck won two games and lost seven for the Stars before his release.

Although he allowed nine hits, San Diego's Liebert fanned 7 and defeated the cellar Oakland A's 6 to 1. It was Liebert's fourth win of the season. The Padres bunched ten hits off Sheehan, who won a 1-to-0 victory from their last time he faced the Padres, and Floyd Olds.

MEDFORD STUDENT WINS HARVARD BID

MEDFORD, June 7.—(AP)—Roger C. Honeman, 17, valedictorian of the 1938 graduating class of Medford senior high school, has been awarded a national scholarship to Harvard university, according to word received yesterday by his parents.

A similar award was received by Ralph Bennett, Jr., of The Dalles. Under the award, the youths will receive a maximum stipend of $1000 for the first year and $1200 for each year thereafter.

LOCAL ELKS MAY ASK STATE MEET

A special request to all officers and members of the Elks lodge to attend the regular lodge meeting Thursday night was made today. The lodge is considering inviting the state convention to this city, and a final vote will be taken at the meeting tomorrow night to determine whether the invitation should be extended. The state meeting will be held in the latter part of July.

REFRIGERATION BUSINESS OPENED

A new refrigeration repair and service business was announced here today by E. C. Jones, who has been employed in that line of work for the past 11 years. He will maintain his repair shop and office at his home.

EX-CIVIC LEADER GETS PRISON TERM

SPOKANE, June 7.—(AP)—After suddenly changing his plea to guilty after a jury was chosen to try him, Jay B. Johnson, former power company manager at Sprague and past president of the chamber of commerce, was sentenced today to ten years in McNeil island federal penitentiary for robbery of the Sprague branch of the old National bank.

Judge Webster castigated Johnson for his defense contention that he did not have a loaded pistol when he held employees in the bank until the vault release opened, but loaded it afterward in his hideaway under an adjacent building.

The bank was robbed of $6,483. Johnson also was a former city councilman in charge of the town's law enforcement.

TENNIS COURT IS BEING IMPROVED

The public tennis court sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club and located on Commercial Ave., North Roseburg, is receiving several improvements. Workmen are preparing for a 15-foot asphalt surface and are moving the concrete playing court, eliminating the difficulties caused by the rock dust borders.

LUMBER WORKERS SPURN WAGE CUT

MEMPHISVILLE, June 7.—(AP)—Members of the CIO international at woodworkers of America refused yesterday to accept a 10 percent wage cut and resume operations of a highway rig at the Flora Lumber company, Carlton. The plant, which closed May 29, throwing 525 men out of work, offered employment to 275 yesterday. The union, while not officially voting down the offer, failed to send out crews.

SCHMELING SURE HE'LL WHIP LOUIS

German in Fine Condition for Battle; Braddock Praises Champ.

By GAYLE TALBOT SPECTATOR, N. Y. June 8.—(AP)—It is difficult to stay in this pleasant spot for a day and not break out in a rash of predictions about what Max Schmeling will do to Joe Louis two weeks from tonight in the Yankee stadium.

The German's quiet confidence is so contagious, he is so dead certain he will stop the negro champion again, that you begin wondering why all those people are buying $30 tickets to watch it happen.

At supper last night, between forksful of Hungarian goulash, Max gave a wide grin and chuckled: "You know, the funniest thing is nobody asks me now if I'm afraid of Louis. That's all I heard for six weeks before the other fight. 'Are you afraid of Louis?' I took it good, too. Now I wonder how good Joe's taking it when you ask him if he's afraid of me."

The man who intends to make ring history by regaining the heavyweight title he, as usual, in superb condition. Gene Tunney, a visitor to the camp yesterday, said he thought Max probably had hit 32 reached his life's peak of skill and physical fitness.

Daily Devotions

By DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS The spirit of unity is very much in evidence these days. It is allowed even by those who do not pay this great debt that love is due to all mankind; the royal law of God is, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." It is his heart right with God? Is Jesus Christ formed in thy heart by faith? Is thy faith filled with the energy of love? Then let us manifest that Christian love one toward the other. We are fellow soldiers under the same captain of our salvation. Let us commend each other to God in prayer. Our Father, we pray for the church of Christ, so divided in a world which needs so sorely the witness of a united Christendom. Deliver us from all prejudices and sectarian content, which prevents us working together with members of other communions. Open our eyes to see the needs of the world, and may we labor together in love. Amen.

HASKINS ELECTED HEAD OF 20-30 CLUB

Hal Haskins was elected president of the Roseburg 20-30 club at the regular weekly dinner meeting last night. Walter Sauter was named vice-president and Bob Black, sergeant-at-arms. The newly elected directors are Dave Ellis, Earl Wisner, Robert Hellmuth, Ray Wood and Gordon Bennett. The club heard an interesting talk by Gus Carlson of Portland, who is preparing Roseburg's brief in connection with the Umpqua canalization project. He discussed the benefits which the improvement would provide.

CCC CREW ENJOYS RECREATION TOUR

DLEVYLD PARK, June 8.—Seventy-two of the Steamboat CCC boys under the supervision of Lieutenant John L. Kennedy took a recreation trip Saturday to Crescent City. They returned Sunday. The boys reported a wonderful trip. They stopped at the Redwoods, Gold Beach and camped at the Oregon Caves. They stayed over night at Camp Gasquet near Crescent City. The week before, eighty-two of the boys under supervision of Lieut. William B. Minkley took the same trip. The trip covered 510 miles.

LETTERS to the Editor

AGREES WITH ZANE GREY ON FISH SCARCITY CAUSE

ROSEBURG, Ore., June 7.—Editor News-Review: Having read Zane Grey's article pertaining to fish life on the North Umpqua, I heartily agree with him. I have disapproved of the present conditions for years as I have spent much time studying the fish at the racks located near Rock creek. Both steelhead and chinook commit suicide trying to get through them and to their natural spawning grounds.

Mr. Grey is right when he states the large steelheads cannot get through the racks, and it is only a short life for them there. I remember 18 years ago of making a trip up the North Umpqua. I thought it the Garden of Eden for fish and wild life, it was great to cast a fly and land a bright steelhead, and deer were everywhere and quite tame.

I only hope to see a game preserve made of the North Umpqua, and no gun will be fired within a mile of each bank, what a sight it would be for our tourist to view the wild deer. So let's hope for a day when we see the racks gone and spawning grounds made a preserve, and the inlets to the power plants screened.

Then nature will be in its glory again on the most beautiful stream, the North Umpqua. Yours, DAN BOONE.
