Crocheted Scotty Chair Set

By RUTH ORR

PATTERN No. 302

These appealing little scotties will be perfectly at home on your chairs, and will be useful, too, for they'll protect the chair, or hide worn spots, if need be. The pieces measure 18 by 18 1/2 and 8 1/2 by 18 1/2 inches, respectively, when made of the No. 30 cotton that we recommend.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand directions, with block and space diagrams to aid you; also what crochets hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern send or No. 302 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for news service and postage. Address News-Review Needlework Dept., Roseburg, Oregon.

RECREATION NEWS

Douglas County Conditions Summarized in Forestry Service Bulletin.

Trout fishing is reported to be better than at any previous time this season in most streams which draw their waters from the lower elevations. In the North Umpqua river, however, and in its tributaries an excessive volume of snow water is holding these streams at too high a level for the best fishing. The chinook run is reported to be very light, with a few fish being taken at Winchester.

Diamond lake district: The Union creek and the Dalles-California highways are open to travel, with occasional snow drifts to be seen along the shoulders of the roads. The Diamond lake summer homes road is open about 2 1/2 miles north on the west side of the lake.

Here Thursday—Mr. and Mrs. Ab Mathews and son, Bobby, of Myrtle Creek, were here yesterday attending to business and visiting friends.
