MR. AND MRS. PARROTT COMPLIMENTED AT LOVELY PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

Saturday evening about one hundred residents of the Garden Valley community went to the Women's club home to honor Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Parrott, who were married May 18th at the home of the bride at Morgan, Missouri.

Large baskets of lovely spring flowers were arranged about the room, which formed an attractive setting for the happy occasion. A beautiful gift was presented by the guests to Mr. and Mrs. Parrott, who both responded with short talks.

Music and games were enjoyed during the evening hours and following the delightful social, delicious refreshments were served.

The bride, who was Barbara Hartzell before her marriage of May 18th, is the attractive daughter of Superintendent and Mrs. E. S. Hartzell of Morgan, Missouri. She was graduated as an honor student from the Teachers' college at Warrensburg, Missouri, earning her two life teaching certificates, one for teaching in grade schools and one for teaching in high schools. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary fraternity for men and women.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Parrott, of Roseburg and Garden Valley. He is a graduate of the Roseburg high school. Mr. and Mrs. Parrott make their home at the coast during the summer months, where the former is employed, planning to return to Garden Valley for the winter.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Parrott unites two families of life-long standing, at the former's father, Fred E. Parrott, and Superintendent Hartzell were boyhood friends. They had not seen one another for years, until a year ago, when the Hartzell family made their first tour west, stopping over in Garden Valley to visit at the Parrott home.
