OREGON EVENTS FLASHED FROM WIRE SERVICE
ASTORIA, June 14.—(AP)—Because a coast guard amphibian plane flew low over the Lewis and Clark river near here April 27, the federal government may have to pay $6750.
The fur farm filed a claim asserting that mother mink developed cannibalistic tendencies and devoured 270 mink kittens when the plane frightened them by swooping "within 150 feet of the mink sheds." Damages asked represented the farm's estimated value of the kittens.
BAKER, June 14.—(AP)—Spotted fever has claimed its first victim of the year in Baker county. Mrs. Mary Emaline Batty, 61, of Auburn, died Sunday in Baker from the effects of a tick bite.
Newly hatched silkworms are so small that 700,000 weigh only one pound; within 42 days, the same 700,000 weigh 4500 pounds.

Mutual-Don Lee Microphone Highlights
It was an occasion for a celebration at Marshfield, Oregon, and in fact, the entire Coos Bay, Oregon, metropolitan area when Station KOOS joined hands with the Mutual-Don Lee Broadcasting system. Sheldon F. Sackett, publisher of the Coos Bay Times, is owner and operator of Station KOOS.
Watch out for the love interest, entering "Hollywood Spinsters," the colorful daily serial story reaching Mutual-Don Lee listeners daily, 11:30 to 11:45 a. m. "Melodious" and "Sophia," the spinsters who inherited $25,000 from a hitherto-unknown uncle are having a good time in the movie capital.
Bob Nolan and his melodious group, "Sons of the Pioneers," are planning new musical treats for Mutual-Don Lee nightly programs, 8:15 to 9 p. m. except on Thursday. The group, besides Mutual-Don Lee engagements, is under contract to Columbia Pictures corporation, Hollywood, and recently finished "Singing Guns." They can ride, shoot and act just as capably as sing and play. Soon they are to launch another film production at Columbia.

IMPOSTER ADMITS FORGERY CHARGE

NEW YORK, June 14.—(AP)—A plea of guilty to a forgery charge was made yesterday in general sessions court by Mrs. Muriel DuPont Bergman who was arrested in Portland, Ore.
Mrs. Bergman admitted posing as the daughter of the late General T. Coleman DuPont, once United States senator from Delaware. Frank Seitz and his wife, Marie, Portland, said they gave Mrs. Bergman their life savings after they took her, destitute, into their home in 1931.
She lived there six years, and the complaint alleged the money was obtained on the strength of a letter purporting to show Mrs. Bergman to be an heiress of General DuPont's estate, estimated between $18,000,000 and $40,000,000.
The complaint charged the letter bore a forged signature of Surgeon General James A. Foley. Judge James G. Wallace set June 27 for sentencing.
Senator Schwartz (D., Wyo.) and other western senators argued during debate on the measure it was needed to protect consumers from misrepresentation.
Senators Walsh (D., Mass.) and Glass (D., Va.) contended it would be impossible to enforce the labeling requirements because of the inability to distinguish virgin from other types of wool.
Representative Martin (D., Colo.), who introduced a similar measure, said he would seek to have the house interstate and foreign commerce committee substitute the senate bill for his measure so the house could vote on the legislation before adjournment.
Not all heavers are industrious, but the lazy ones pay a severe penalty for their idleness. They are driven away from their home settlements, and, sometimes, are marked, by having parts of their tails cut off. These outcasts at ways are males.
