MISS GRACE ADAMSON AND IRVING B. ELLE MARRY ON SATURDAY

The beautiful urban home of Dr. and Mrs. Victor J. Morris of Eugene, was the scene of a pretty candlelight ceremony Saturday afternoon, June 11, when Miss Grace Adamson became the bride of Irving B. Elle.

The service was read by Dr. Morris before the living-room bay window, which was decorated with tall baskets of white peonies, snapdragons and syringas and two tall candelabras.

Mrs. Edna Leslie Pearson played the wedding music. Preceding the ceremony she sang, "When Song Is Sweet" and "At Dawning."

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a dress in red-rose fashion, of white marquisette and lace, with a floor length tulle veil falling from a halo cap fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Broomer roses with white sweet peas and maiden hair fern. She also carried a point lace handkerchief which her mother carried at her wedding.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Ambrose I. Huff, a bride of June 5, was attired in her wedding dress, which was a floor length white sheer frock and her flowers were dark pink sweet peas.

George Elle was best man for his brother.

For the reception, presiding at the bridal table, Mrs. Clara Bailey served the wedding cake and Miss Ada Shuel poured, assisted by the Misses Velma Bur-traw and Rozelle Stroub. Miss Katharine Elle assisted in the living room and Mrs. V. P. Morris and Mrs. Clark Wilcox at the door.

There were about forty guests. From out of town were, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Adamson, parents of the bride, and Mrs. Clara Bailey, of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Elle, parents of the bridegroom, Katherine and Betty Elle, sisters, and George, Marvin and Jack Elle, brothers, from Portland, Miss Irene Hecktor and Miss Evelyn Acheson from Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Elle will be in Eugene this summer and will live next year at The Dalles, where Mr. Elle is on the teachers' staff.

Mrs. Elle graduated from the normal school at Monmouth and has attended the University of Oregon, and has been teaching in Eugene. Mr. Elle is a graduate of Southern Oregon normal at Ashland and U. of O. and has taught in The Dalles for the past year.

For going away the bride wore a flowered silk street dress, with brown accessories.

After a short trip to California they will attend the university where Mr. Elle is working on his master's degree.

FATHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET TO BE FRIDAY

The Roseburg Camp Fire groups will entertain their fathers at a delightful seven o'clock father-daughter banquet Friday evening, June 17, at the Methodist Episcopal church church parlors. ATTAINMENT

By ALDEN HARNESSE. In regions of divine reality, Beyond the reach of all mortality, Dwells all-transforming Spirit's perfect man.

If you will live this man and think and plan Your mind will grow and grow until you can Prolong your mortal life's uncertain span

And manifest and radiate the wealth Of inner beauty and immortal health And make your happiness complete and whole,

Then over all inharmony and blight Which would surround you with unending night You can forever gain supreme control.
