It's crocheted in such a simple pattern that you'll have no trouble in making it. Baby's mother is sure to find the cape is a most convenient kind of wrap, especially since a cozy bonnet is attached.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand illustrated directions, with stitch diagrams to aid you, also what crochet hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern send for No. 1034 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) plus cover postage and service. Address News-Review Needlework Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

But now it's gone
From off the stem,
Like leaves they fall
We can't keep them.

But ah, the rose,
Think not it's gone,
For it gave a thought
That lingers on.

Ah yes, the rose,
Its blossom dead,
Has left a thought
With me instead.

The rose must fade
But does not die,
It's in my heart
Much closer by.
