POET'S CORNER

THE SALMON BAKE
By L. M. McCULLOCH
Oh, the crowd was large and hungry
At the salmon bake today.
And you wondered how the fish could last,
And you smiled to hear folks say,
"M-m-m, doesn't it smell good now."
Hope there's some left for me,
But such a very hungry crowd I never before did see!
And then your turn came nearer,
And you held your plate up high,
For you wanted a flat surface
For that baked fish to try.
And folks stepped in before you,
And you just grinned anyway,
No use to mind, no one did
At the salmon bake today.
