

SALVO OF PADRES BLANKS SEATTLE

Seals Defeat Los Angeles, Hollywood Wins, 6 to 2, Over Portland.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—(AP)—Salvo, San Diego's fast ball artist, demonstrated last night why he's the Pacific coast baseball league's leading starting pitcher and strikeout king.

He handed out Seattle's hardest hitters and blanked them 3 to 0. He fanned seven to raise his total for the season to 102. It was his 13th win of the season against three losses.

Salvo even figured in the scoring last night, in the eighth inning he belted a single and then roused home when Patchett bonned a sizzling two-bagger off the left centerfield fence.

The big bat of Norbert, leading home run hitter of the circuit, helped the San Francisco Seals win a 2 to 1 verdict over the Los Angeles Angels. He belted a home run in the second inning with none on, to bring his total for the season to 14.

The lovely Oakland Acolars were winning a ball game from the league leading Sacramento Solons until hits began popping off the Solons' bats in the first of the ninth inning. The Oaks held a 3 to 2 lead and Joyce had been pitching steady ball. He retired Adams and then the next four Senators picked him for singles. To climax the assault, Franks smashed a two-bagger and three more runs crossed the plate. The final score was 6 to 3 for the league leaders.

Although they outdid the Hollywood Stars 12 to 9, the Portland Beavers dropped into seventh place when beaten, 6 to 2. The Beavers forced the Stars to use three pitchers, but went scoreless until the seventh inning when they scored their two runs on a pair of hits and two walks.

SPINA BEATS BUXTON TO WIN ZONE TITLE

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 23.—(AP)—Al Spina, 125½, of Portland, won the northwest featherweight title last night by taking a 10-round decision from Billy Buxton, 123, Victoria, in a main event here.

Spina took an early lead with a dynamic right hand, while Buxton came back in the closing rounds, knocking Spina to his knees in the eighth.

YANKS DROP TWIN BILL TO CLEVELAND

Lefty Gomez Loses Opener by Wild Pitch; Giants Beat Cincinnati.

By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer

With the season approaching the halfway mark, the New York Yankees are in third place today, 44 games back of Cleveland's galloping Indians, and that certainly shouldn't make those who invested a few bucks at the 7 to 10 pre-season odds feel any too comfortable.

The late Murderers' Row had its best chance of the season to do something about the whole business this week in a four-game series with the Tribe. But the Indians came from behind for a 10-5 decision in Tuesday's opener, and then humiliated the Yanks all the way in taking both ends of a doubleheader yesterday, 3-1 and 7-1.

Lefty Gomez lost another of his heartbreakers in the opener, making a two-run wild throw in the first inning to hand the Tribe a 7 to 10 win, and then pitching one-hit ball the rest of the way, which his mates failed to back up. In the nightcap, Allen tossed a four-hitter for the Indians and Campbell's three-run homer led a 11-hit attack.

With the second-place Boston Red Sox dropping an 8-3 decision to the Tigers, in which Kennedy handed Lefty Grove his second defeat of the season, the double win boosted the Indians' margin over their nearest rivals to 3½ games.

The Giants, at the head of the National league parade, also gained ground by coming from behind with a five-run outburst in the seventh and eighth frames to clip the Cincinnati Reds, 6-1. By knocking off their closest pursuers, the Giants boosted their lead to 2½ games.

Stratton's eight-hit pitching, backed by a 17-hit assault, gave the White Sox a 16-3 win over the Washington Senators. The Athletics landed on Mills with a four-run outburst in the sixth to sink the St. Louis Browns, 7-1.

Warneke's pitching and Medwick's bat combined to lead the Cardinals to a 4-2 victory over the Boston Bees. The Cubs-Pallies game was rained out, and the Pirates and Brooklyn Dodgers weren't scheduled.
