TOWNSEND MEET REPORT SCHEDULED

A report from the recent national convention of Townsend clubs at Los Angeles will be presented Friday night at the regular meeting of the Roseburg club by A. C. Marsters, delegate from the local organization. The meeting will be held at the Macabean hall, starting at 8 o'clock. Old-time music will be given by Ernest Crump of Melrose, and refreshments will follow the program.

Mr. Marsters returned to Roseburg Monday after attending the national convention.

Mrs. Mable P. Taylor, president of the Roseburg club, and her daughter, Mrs. R. D. Kleist, delegate from the Dillard club, also returned to Roseburg Monday. They visited at Los Angeles with Mrs. Taylor's son, Ivan P. Taylor and family, and stopped in San Francisco on the return trip to visit another son, Stanley W. Taylor.

Other delegates from Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. James Sawyers, Miss Gertrude Rast, L. W. Ingles and Charles Arundel will return Thursday. They are spending a few days in Yosemite park on the way home.

All of the delegates are expected to be present at Friday's meeting.

LOCAL MAN OFFERS POISON OAK CURE

There is a way to cure poison oak infection, states E. D. Lewis, who lives at the north end of Pine street, and who says he has successfully used a preparation of his own making for more than 30 years. His remedy which, he says he is glad to pass along to other sufferers, consists of the juice of lemons from the deeply nightshade plant and ordinary bean plant leaves, mixed half and half—which liquid should be mixed in equal parts with rich cream or with glycerine.

SALEM, June 28.—(AP)—Arthur W. Prianx, state chairman, advised Mayor V. E. Kuhn yesterday that the state republican central committee's organization meeting would be held here unless unforeseen circumstances caused a change.

Prianx indicated the meeting would be held late in July.
