

HOOVER OR LONDON— WHICH HEADS G.O.P.

Titular Question Expected to Be Answered During Coming Campaign.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(AP)—The congressional election campaign may determine whether Alf M. Landon or Herbert Hoover will be recognized as the titular leader of the republican party.

Friends of the two women considered both have a claim to the leadership—Landon as the party's last standard bearer and Hoover as its last president.

Prominent republicans in Washington said today that campaign activities of the pair should give the rank-and-file an effective yardstick for measuring the relative effectiveness of their leadership.

In some cases, one or the other may have his way about the nomination of republican candidates. In others, state and county leaders may have an opportunity to observe which one demonstrates the most vote-getting power for party nominees.

Both Hoover and Landon are expected to make a series of addresses during the campaign. Comprehensive arrangements have not been made, but republicans here said they probably would speak in most of the closely contested states.

Landon, who has been reported at odds with National Chairman John Hamilton, was expected to arrange his speaking tour without consulting the national committee.

The national executive committee, meeting here Monday, endorsed Hamilton and his campaign program, but did not discuss the question of whether Landon or Hoover should be recognized as titular head.

MORATORIUM ON MINING EXTENDED

HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 29.—(AP)—President Roosevelt has signed legislation freezing prospectors from the necessity of performing required assessment work for the current fiscal year on mining claims held by location.

The exemption will apply to claims in both the United States and Alaska.

Similar relief has been extended prospectors every year since 1932. Only claim holders entitled to exemption from payment of income taxes for the 1937 tax year may claim the relief extended by the act.

Suspension privileges will apply to not more than six lode-mining claims held by the same person, nor to more than 12 held by the same partnership, association or corporation. Similarly, it will apply to not more than six placer-mining claims of not to exceed 120 acres in all held by the same person, nor to more than 12 of not to exceed 240 acres held by the same partnership, association or corporation.

Prospectors claiming relief must file notice by midnight, July 1, of their desire to continue to hold their claims. This notice must be filed in the office where the location notice or certificate is recorded.

Returns from Los Angeles — Loyal Stephens returned to his home in this city last night following the past several months in Los Angeles, where he was employed by the Gypsy Caravan Trailer company, which was recently sold by Henry Harth, formerly of this city.
