

JERUSALEM BOMB KILLS 4, WOUNDS 36

Renewed Arab-Jew Feud Puts British Troops Into Action.

JERUSALEM, July 8.—(AP)—A bomb blast at Jerusalem's busy Jaffa gate today killed four Arabs and wounded 36 in a new outbreak of deadly terror which Great Britain is trying to crush with warships and troop reinforcements.

The bomb tore apart a bus in the crowded Arab bus station and a vegetable market in the shadow of David's tower.

The vehicle was filled with Arab counterfeits about to leave for Hebron. Its bloodstained and twisted framework was scattered in a roadway filled with panic-stricken humanity.

Troops of the Scottish Black Watch regiment, with fixed bayonets, cleared the square and started hunting the bomb thrower.

One Jew surrounded by an enraged Arab mob was rescued by police and hustled to safety.

About the same time a general strike broke out in Amman, in neighboring Transjordan. Workers struck in sympathy with Palestine Arabs, victims of bomb throwings at Haifa, Palestine's chief port.

Today's violence raised the casualties in nine days of riots and tension to 37 killed and 150 injured.

The British battle cruiser Repulse, one of the world's biggest battleships, steamed into Haifa harbor to take the place of the British cruiser Emerald. The Repulse trained her cannon on Haifa.

British troops and marines patrolled Haifa, into which Arabs were pouring for religious observances.

One Jewish store in Haifa was burned down. Three Jews were seriously injured when attacked by men wielding iron bars in a mixed quarter of the city.

U. S. BIG SELLER OF WAR NEEDS TO JAPAN AND CHINA

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—American firms sold Japan and China more than $20,000,000 worth of war supplies during their first year of conflict.

State department figures showed today that China bought $12,559,741 and Japan $7,461,413.

Japanese purchases, however, have increased at a much more rapid rate, with the result that in the last six months Japan has become a bigger buyer by several hundred thousand dollars.

War supplies sent to both belligerents were principally airplanes, motors and accessories. Most shipments to China were licensed for Hongkong, British port, through which they go into the interior.

Must Fill Contracts

State department officials said it was too soon to determine the effect of the statement of Secretary Hull June 11 that the administration was seeking to discourage manufacturers from shipping planes to countries which engage in bombing civilian populations.

They said licenses on the basis of which arms export figures are published often are issued in consideration of advances of the actual shipment. Manufacturers are under contract with the belligerents and have to ask for additional licenses until the contracts have been fulfilled; otherwise they must risk suit for breaking contracts.

BAPTISTS INSTALL FREE BUS SERVICE

SALLEM, July 8.—(AP)—Free bus service today became an official activity of the First Baptist church, one of the city's largest religious groups.

Church authorities announced the beginning of a bus route, operated by the church in a move calculated to bolster the spiritual enthusiasm of church and Sunday school members. They officially explained it this way:

"This is not in competition with the city bus service but a service the church feels necessary to those who otherwise would not attend."

The bus will make its first trip Sunday morning.

INSURGENT PLANES RAID THREE TOWNS

MADRID, July 8.—(AP)—Three persons were killed and seven injured when nine insurgent Savoia (Italian-type) planes raided Segorbe, 40 miles northwest of Valencia, at dawn today. Several houses were wrecked.

The raiders also attacked the nearby towns of Soneja and Sot de Ferrer, where 16 were injured.

GRANTS PASS, July 7.—(AP)—

It's an unusual doe with only one fawn this year in the Wolf Creek vicinity. In Vern Strong's deer pens, 14 of his 17 does gave birth to twins; one proud mother has triplets. Mrs. Ed Holland's two penneers have twins and she reports that 10 of 11 wild does observed in her neighborhood have double offspring.

They were identified at the hospital as Charles Zarumba, Plainfield, N. J., back injuries; William Medhaus, Minot, N. D., cuts and bruises; Thomas Mattson, Burns, Ore., cuts and bruises. Zarumba and an unidentified man were reported to be seriously hurt.

Others, unidentified, were being treated for minor lacerations.

Railroad officials said the locomotive was one of the new fleet of locomotives designed for mountain freight travel.

mill "was the right thing to do" was denied by Rosser.

He also denied, on cross examination, that Beck had attended a meeting in Portland last September to nominate Rosser as secretary. A moment later Rosser admitted Beck was there, explaining he had called the meeting because there was a question about auditing Rosser's books.

After a clash with Oscar Hayer, associated in the prosecution, Vandervoer demanded that Circuit Judge Walker charge Hayer with misconduct but was refused.

Judge Walker, after an argument with Vandervoer over whether certain testimony had been introduced, said:

"Mr. Vandervoer, don't stand up there and contradict me. I don't like to be accused of an untruth."

Hugh Reynolds, former secretary of the Salem and Eugene teamsters locals, testified Rosser removed him from the Salem job at his request and not because, as Banks had testified, he objected to spending money to burn the mill. Reynolds declared also he was framed when convicted of hiring men to break barber shop windows in Eugene.

"In that confidence I am pushing on."

"I am sure you will push on with me."

As soon as his prepared address was completed, he declared:

"I hereby dedicate this great monument, dedicated to 150 years of Americanism."

That was the signal for flag and hunting draped shield to be pulled from a Lewis and Clark memorial.

The president said, in his introduction, that his "two old friends," Senator Blakely and Representative Robert T. Serrett, of Caldwell, Ohio, invited him to make the address several months ago.

This was the only reference to Serrett, also a candidate for reelection.

President Roosevelt asserted today the nation is on a "critical migration," seeking to open new frontiers of social and economic security.

pledged anew the leadership of his administration, and urged the people not to be "afraid to help each other."

"Let us never forget that government is ourselves and not an alien power over us," he said.

The speech was the first of several the president will deliver on a cross-country tour designed to expound his policies and to win support at the polls for "liberal" senators and representatives.

A reference to "the efficiency of government machinery" was taken by many to mean that President Roosevelt intends to make an issue of the government reorganization bill which congress refused to approve, despite his insistence on its passage.

No Governor Boost

Charles Sawyer, of Cincinnati, Governor M. L. Davey's opponent in the August 9 primary for the democratic gubernatorial nomination, shook hands with the president as the executive strode down an incline from the end of his train.

There was no crowd reaction when the president referred to Buckley as the modern "cavalry captain" who works that "protection and help of government can be extended to all."

Governor Davey was applauded as he shook hands with the president but the crowd appeared more interested in the address and the pageantry of unveiling the monument than in seeing political leaders.

If the Davey and Sawyer camps expected the president to give any indication of his preferences in the gubernatorial contest, they were disappointed, except that Sawyer was given the opportunity to accompany the president southward while the governor remained here.

Secret service officers estimated that 60,000 to 80,000 persons were in the park for the president's address. A Red Cross unit treated more than 60 persons for heat prostration and minor accidents.
