SHIRTCLIFF-DELZELL WEDDING IS CHARMING EVENT OF SATURDAY.

MYRTLE CREEK, July 9.—The Christian church at Myrtle Creek was the setting for a lovely wedding Saturday, July 2, at high noon, when Miss Sheila Delzell, daughter of Mrs. Frances Belle Delzell, of Turner, became the bride of Henry Shirtcliff, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Shirtcliff.

Preceding the ceremony, Alvin Sherman of Salem sang, "I Love You Truly," and "O Promise Me." The accompanist was Mrs. Thomas Ireland, who also played the wedding march, after which the ring service was read by Rev. Frank W. Zook, of Silverton.

The church was decorated with ferns, regal lilies, delphiniums, roses and sweetpeas. The windows were darkened and tall white tapers lent a soft light on the wedding party assembled under an archway of greenery.

The bride wore a princess gown of white embroidered marquisette, with a fingertip length veil held by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of gardenias.

Her attendants were her sister, Miss Thelma Delzell, of Monmouth, maid of honor; Mrs. Marian Bailey, the groom's sister, of Richmond, Calif.; and Mrs. Ralph Stearns, of Myrtle Creek. The dresses were pastel shade of pink, blue and yellow organza over taffeta slips. The dresses were all floor length and all wore matching hats. Their bouquets were colonial type of sweetpeas and roses.

Little Marilyn Wilson, the flower girl, was sweet in an ankle length dress of pale green organza over a satin slip. Maude James Rice in a blue velvet suit and white silk blouse, carried the ring.

Dr. O. R. Hess was the best man and Lynn Bailey, of Richmond, Calif., and Ralph Stearns were ushers.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Frances Belle Delzell, wore a blue lace frock over blue satin with matching hat. The groom's mother wore a beige lace frock over beige satin with contrasting hat.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents at which refreshments were served to a party of intimate friends and relatives. Assisting Mrs. Shirtcliff with serving were Mrs. Ada Crawford and Mrs. M. H. Stearns.

The wedding cake was three tiered and topped with a tiny bride and groom.

The bride wore a tailored going-away suit of blue gray with a Parisian pin stripe and matching accessories.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Frances Delzell, Turner; Miss Thelma Delzell, Monmouth; A. E. Sherman, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Bailey, Richmond, Calif.; Mrs. J. P. Mims, Phoenix, Ariz.; and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shirtcliff, Winchester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirtcliff went to Portland via the coast route. They will live at Myrtle Point where he is employed by the Shell Oil Co. The bride is a graduate of O. S. C. and has been teaching at Myrtle Creek high school.
