

BLASTS, FIRE HIT SINCLAIR REFINERY

CLIFTON, Mass., July 18.—(AP)—The Rev. Dr. Irving B. Lord, 79, president of the American Baptist home missionary society and pastor of the First Baptist church of Williamsburgh, Brooklyn, N. Y., died in a convalescent home today. Active in the ministry for 53 years, he was one of the founders in 1905 of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America and had served as recording secretary of the organization. He was active in the movement uniting the Baptist and Free Baptist churches.

EXECUTIVES PROMOTED

Seven major promotions in the marketing department of Shell Oil Company have been announced by

L. G. McLaren, vice-president in charge of marketing. R. P. Schroeder, former assistant general sales manager, succeeds McLaren as general sales manager. P. J. Pugh has been promoted from head office sales representative to assistant manager of the operations department. E. C. Harrison from head office sales representative to assistant general sales manager; E. R. Raab from head office sales representative to Oakland division manager; R. D. Stetson from Los Angeles division manager to manager of the service station department; R. B. Jensen from retail merchandising manager to Los Angeles division manager; and J. A. Pell from Oakland division manager to eastern representative, with headquarters in New York.

MOOSE ELECT, NAME 1939 MEETING SITE

MEDFORD, July 18.—(AP)—The Loyal Order of Moose elected R. G. Molschenbacher, Klamath Falls, president and tentatively selected Salem for next year's meeting place at the close of the annual convention Saturday.

Other officers elected included O. M. Emmons, Salem; Clyde Thompson, Klamath Falls; W. E. Hienke, Eugene; A. A. Ranney, Tillamook; Claude Banfield, Portland, vice-presidents; Clifford Gee, Corvallis, secretary; Tobe Watkins, Corvallis, treasurer; David Ingles, Portland, sergeant-at-arms; Edward Shaw, Albany, inner guard; H. B. Brunson, Medford, outer guard.

Men and women drill teams of Klamath Falls won first prizes in the contests staged here Saturday night.

Arizona is the fifth largest state and 65 per cent of its area is held by the federal government as forest reserves or Indian reservations and parks and monuments.

Here Over Week-End—S. G. Solick, Southern Pacific employee at Eugene, formerly located in this city, spent the week-end here on business.

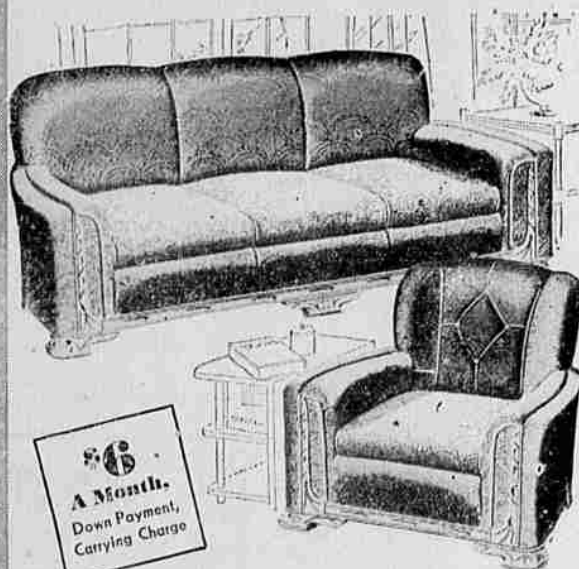

Returns to Portland—Miss Finley Anderson has left for her work in Portland, following two weeks' vacation spent in Roseburg visiting at the home of Mrs. T. H. Virden on North Jackson street.
