

ELDERLY OFFENDER PUT ON PROBATION

Probation was granted Jacob Elliott, 79, of Myrtle Creek, when he pleaded guilty in circuit court here today to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Circuit Judge Carl Wimberly, who imposed sentence of one year in the county jail, agreed to probation upon the condition that Elliott remain away from the state of Oregon. Elliott's attorney told the court that a sister, residing in Nevada, had offered the elderly man a home and that transportation would be provided.

Elliott was arrested June 16 and has since been in custody. He was accused in an information filed by District Attorney J. V. Long of molesting a seven-year-old girl on the main street of Myrtle Creek.

A physician's report also was presented showing Elliott to be in feeble condition.

Judge Wimberly stated that probation was granted only because of the defendant's poor physical condition and apparent mental weakness. He ordered that Elliott be held in jail until transportation has been provided for his removal to Nevada.
