LIBRARY TEA IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

GLENDALF, July 25.—Although thermometers soared to 102 in the shade, the silver tea for the benefit of the Glendale public library, Wednesday afternoon, was a success in every way. The city hall, which houses the library, was a beaver of summer flowers and the two tea tables, to accommodate the large attendance, were beautiful in their centerpieces of sweet peas and baby's breath. During the afternoon, a very informal program, consisting of two piano numbers by Miss Wunsch, two vocal duets by Misses Flora Martin and Letty Whaley and a humorous reading by Mrs. Ella Leach, helped to round out a very enjoyable afternoon regardless of the intense heat.

Refreshments of dainty sandwiches, iced tea and coffee, were served during the afternoon hours, with Mrs. B. F. Mouchett and Mrs. W. S. Price presiding at the urns, and later, relaying by Mrs. A. C. Henninger, Mrs. Francis Nelson and Mrs. C. G. Richards. The silver offering for the afternoon totaled $20.70, which will be used for the purchase of new books for the library.

Ladies from the Crow creek community attending included Mrs. Cora Chadwick, Mrs. Champ Johns, Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Forrest Farnham. Out of town visitors included Mrs. C. B. Johns an daughter of Salem, Mrs. Robert Knight and daughter, Marilyn of Seattle, Mrs. Arthur Dohy of Tulelake, Calif., and Mrs. Hugh Stevenson of Bandon. Mrs. Stevenson was formerly chairman of the library when a resident of Glendale. The Glendale public library was established July 17, 1935, under the supervision of Mrs. C. Webb Carlson, a former Glendale resident. It is the only project of the Ladies Coterie club and all work is done volunteer by club members, which is headed by Mrs. Mouchett as president and Mrs. Price as chairman of the library board. The tea Wednesday afternoon commemorated the third anniversary of the library and will be an annual event in the future.

MRS. HARLAN WILEY IS HONORED AT SHOWER

Camas Valley, July 25.—Mrs. Alberta Coon honored her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harlan Wiley of Roseburg with a shower at her home Sunday afternoon. The honor guest did not arrive until the other guests had brought their gifts and departed as her husband was detained by work in the logging camp in which he works.

Mrs. Coon served dainty refreshments to the guests who brought gifts. Many other gifts were sent in by those who could not attend.

Those present were Mrs. Nellie Siegel, Mrs. Florence Gilmore, Mrs. Elsie Baker, Mrs. Nettie Hollenbeck, Mrs. Madge Standley, Mrs. Ruby Wafer, Mrs. Hazel Roberts, Mrs. Ruth Lawson, Frances Smith and the hostess, Mrs. Alberta Coon.

DORIS HOLLAND AND JAMES MATHERS MARRY

GLIDE, July 25.—Miss Doris Holland and James Mathers, both of Glide, were married at a quiet ceremony at 5:30 p. m. at the home of A. C. Markers in Roseburg, Wednesday, July 20. The bride's mother, Mrs. Carl Holland; the groom's mother, Mrs. Mathers and Mr. and Mrs. Markers were present for the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathers are both popular and well known among Glide's younger set. Mrs. Mathers was one of this year's Glide high school graduates.

Wednesday evening a large group of the young people of Glide charivariated the newlyweds at the Mathers home on Little river, where the young couple are now making their residence. The wedding was a surprise to all of their friends.

APPEALING CROCHETED RUG

By RUTH ORR

PATTERN No. 451. When you make your own rug, you know that it is going to give you excellent wear. This one is made of heavy rug yarn, but with your stockings or strips of rag you can have the same rug. This original pattern has many advantages. You can make any size rug without holding the bulk of the rug, as it's made in 6 inch triangles. The triangles can also be joined in various ways.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand, illustrated directions to aid you; also what crochet hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 451 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address: News-Review, Needlework Dept., Roseburg, Oregon.

SIDE GLANCES

"I told you to keep that door shut. Now look what you've let in!"

In Store Clothes—But Face Death

James Lucas (left) and Rufus Franklin, young Alcatraz Island convicts, joined with another inmate in a desperate bid for freedom, ending with their comrades slain, and the pair facing murder charges for the death of a guard. Manacled and under heavy guard, they are shown in Federal Court in San Francisco, where a judge asked that they be given civilian garb as their prison denim was prejudicial to their legal rights.

No More Chains for Chain Gang

Georgia convicts take shackles from their ankles for the last time, to mark the end of the "chain gang." Ankle chains have been banned in the state—and these prisoners apparently like the prospect of no more raw ankles.
