CAMP FIRE UNITS PLANNING OUTING

Arrangements for the Roseburg Camp Fire groups' annual camp to be held July 31-August 14, at the Wolf Creek CCC camp are progressing nicely according to committees in charge.

H. H. Turner will be in charge of the camp again this year with Mrs. Turner acting as craft instructor; Mrs. Earl Ullrich in charge of archery, which is a new feature this year and Miss Barbara Kurtz has been secured to teach swimming. Miss Kurtz, a senior at Willamette university at Salem, comes highly recommended as a swimming instructor, having been associated with the American Red Cross swimming division. Mrs. A. B. Taylor will be camp cook this year. Counselors include Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Harry Wolfe, Mrs. H. J. Chandler Jr., Mrs. Fred Hamilton and Mrs. Iloy O. Young.

About fifty girls plan to attend this year's camp and those desiring transportation to Wolf Creek have been asked to call Mrs. Clair K. Allen at 576-J as soon as possible. Plans have been made for having fresh fruit, vegetables and milk brought every day by parents. All parents planning to visit the camp, have been asked to call Mrs. Guy Gordon this week as to what day they will take the trip, so that a schedule may be made out as to who will bring the supplies to the camp on each day. The schedule is to be made by this Friday and the Camp Fire leaders are especially desirous of having parents co-operate with them on the matter.

Vacationing—H. J. Chandler, Jr., KINIt employee, is taking his vacation this week.
