LOUIS SLATED FOR 4 FIGHTS IN 1939

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Joe Louis, the heavyweight champion, has just announced he will fight four times in 1939, and it would seem some four fellows are heading for a ring full of trouble. Louis will box next in Madison Square Garden in January, according to Mike Jacobs' plans. Max Baer—"the new Boer"—is expected to be the opposition on the Pacific coast in April, with June and September bouts outdoors in New York.

Mike Jacobs, who thinks slightly more of Joe than he does of his right eye, said yesterday the champion would not fight again this year. "Joe is willing but his managers ain't," commented Michael. "They're afraid the income tax men will take most of his dough."

Jacobs has large plans for an elimination tournament which will include Tommy Farr, Tony Galento, Gunnar Harlund, the Finn, and anyone else with beef and temerity enough to face the champion.

Elsewhere on the fistie front the day was a busy one. Low Ambers and Henry Armstrong, stalemated by rain, returned to their respective camps to work a little more for next Wednesday night's bout in Madison Square garden.

The best minds of the cauliflower industry agree the extra week will hurt Lightweight Champion Ambers more than Armstrong. Ambers was in magnificent shape when he stopped training Monday. It will be difficult to get him back to a peak. Armstrong was a little off form and for him the rest is what the doctor ordered.

RESIDENCE PROPERTY ON COURT STREET PURCHASED

The residence property at 513 Court street, recently vacated by Frank Long, has been purchased by R. L. Hudson, who plans to occupy it with his family at once. Mr. Hudson retains his residence property on Winchester street, where he has lived for a number of years.

Mrs. Parlow Home—Mrs. Raymond Parlow has returned to her home on East Lane street, following a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends in Moscow, Idaho.

CRIPPLED ANGELS BUY OAKS' HURLER

(By the Associated Press.) The Los Angeles Angels, fighting to hang onto first place in the Pacific coast baseball league with a crippled pitching staff, waded a bank of money and a player at the collar Oakland A's today for help and got it.

The Angels were lucky to beat the Hollywood Stars, 2 to 0 last night after being limited to three scattered hits by Bolen, but after the game President Dave Fleming of the Los Angeles club announced he had exchanged Marvin Gula, veteran outfielder, and some cold cash for Dwight Van Fleet, Oakland pitcher.

Van Fleet left for Los Angeles last night after pitching two innings as a relief hurler for the Oaks, who were beaten, 7 to 3 by the San Diego Padres. The victory pushed the Padres into third place as the San Francisco Seals, who got no better results.

Newsom, opposing Milnar, tossed a five-hitter, and the Browns nipped the Tribe, 8-7. Then Tietje, whose last well-pitched game was beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant, hurled a six-hitter, and St. Louis for an 8-2 decision.

Since the Yankees were virtually handed a 9-6 decision by Washington Senators, this twin setback dropped the Tribe a game and a half farther back in the race. And the fellows who were around during the Yanks' last two pennant conquests made ready to fall asleep again, convinced the junior circuit campaign was all over.

The Boston Red Sox aren't showing much interest in taking advantage of the Tribe's collapse. While

PITCHING STAFF OF CLEVELAND SLUMPS

Indians' Chances for Flag Collapse; Yankees Boost Lead to 6 1/2 Games.

By SID FEDER (Associated Press Sports Writer.) All in all, and taking things by and large, those Cleveland pitchers certainly picked a fine time to fold up.

In fact, the New York Yankees, now sailing along 6 1/2 games in front of the American league pack, will tell you the Tribe elbowers couldn't have chosen a better spot to collapse.

First it was young Peller who began getting kicked around and lost a "crossbar" one to the Yankees. Next Allen's sore arm couldn't take it any longer. Then Harder's comeback went back into the mothballs.

And finally, Oscar Vitt, who wasn't used to that sort of thing—especially not after the pleasant experience of piloting Newark's wonder team—to an International league pennant by 25 1/2 games last season—sent young Milnar and Hudlin to the wars yesterday against the staggering St. Louis Browns, and got no better results.

SCHOOL WORK BIDS ASKED BY REEDSPORT

Bids for constructing and equipping an addition to the union-high school at Reedsport will be opened at the office of the school principal in Reedsport at 11 a. m. August 20. It is announced from the Portland headquarters of the PWA. The total cost of the project is estimated at $16,450 of which the PWA will pay $7,406. Frank L. Taylor of Reedsport is chairman of the school board.

of Philadelphia are being assisted by William Williams of Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Insurance companies, auto clubs, public officials, the national as well as state W. C. T. U.'s, and the Society of Friends have cooperated in planning and making possible the safety tour. It has been approved by Judge Harry Porter and Donald S. Berry of the National Safety Council.

SAFETY SCHOOL ON WHEELS DATED HERE

The "Safety School on Wheels" a twenty-five foot, custom-built trailer, towed by a new Scyldinger coupe, is now making a transcontinental tour, carrying many new and interesting safety exhibits to the man and woman on the street, and will visit Roseburg from 1 to 4 p. m. Monday, Aug. 15.

Through the courtesy of mayors, city councils and police officials, citizens of the community may study and see demonstrated the value of careful driving, the importance of normal reaction time and unrestricted vision. The problem of the "drinking or undrunken driver" is being touched upon and there are demonstrations of the officially accepted "intoxication tests" which afford benefit and protection to non-drinking drivers and pedestrians suffering from shock, illness or injury.

Three trained young men, smartly uniformed, are conducting the tour. The owners of the caravan, Mr. and Mrs. James A. W. Killin
