ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT AND CLYDE WALKER ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Interesting news to a large group of University of Oregon friends and also to numerous friends in Roseburg is the engagement of Miss Rosalie Allan Steinmetz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Steinmetz, of Eugene, to Clyde Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson D. Walker, of Portland.

The announcement was made at a bridge party given Thursday evening by Mrs. Steinmetz for the bride-elect. The wedding date has been set for nine o'clock the morning of August 21, at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house in Eugene.

The announcement was made on small scrolls attached to French bouquets given to each guest. Both Miss Steinmetz and Mr. Walker were graduated this spring from U. of O. The bride-elect is a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority and Mr. Walker is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Miss Steinmetz has been the inspiration for numerous charming affairs in Eugene during the past week. She is a niece of Mrs. George Wharton of this city.

U. S. V. HOSPITAL

The library received ninety-three new purchased books this week. Forty-seven were volumes of the latest fiction, fifty-six were of history, biography, travel and science. No small amount for readers here for a while!

We were distressed to hear that our popular chaplain, the Rev. Perry Smith, had fallen and injured his back, so that he could not officiate here on Sunday. If the force of good wishes can lift him up he will recover shortly.

There were some complaints against Hollywood after the picture show Monday night that a well known comedian failed to be as funny as usual. The applause of the public varies. The highest stars in filmland at present are an ice-skater, a nine-year-old girl, an animated cartoon, and a wood-on-dummy.

Tuesday's card party was sponsored by the auxiliary to Patrick W. Kelley post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. There were forty-six players, and the room hummed with gaiety. The hospital was honored this week by a visit from the state commander of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, and the state president of the auxiliary, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dover. They were escorted by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Andrews, our friends of the local post.

Our large cool pool room is a favorite place these afternoons. Ward two is proud of a player who has scored eighty-six balls. When he takes a cue the rest of us just stand by to see the felt cleared.

Who knows where there are some good, whole, clean jigsaw puzzles stored away? We have worked our sunny right side up and bottom side up and over. The manufacturers have stopped marketing new ones, but interest in that diversion has never ceased here.

The Gray Ladies corps was augmented by one new member on Wednesday. Mrs. Jack McCallister joined the entertainers on ward five, and we were happy to make her acquaintance.

Thursday night "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" was booked here. Westbrook Pegerler has said that this is the happiest thing which has happened to the world since the armistice. One needs to see it twice, for at the first view he is too charmed by the naturalness of the impossible, and the seeming reality of the unreal, to be able to appreciate the artistry of the technique. We marvel at the perpetual child-heart and imagination of Walt Disney, whose understanding made possible the conception of this film. No one, however many his years, need feel ashamed to confess that he enjoyed the dramatized fairy tale with the comeliness of its convincingly human dwarfs.

Patients who came here from America last January were pleased to see Miss Gladys Shaw, the recreational aide at that hospital, who stopped here for a visit en route back from a vacation in California.

Our Friday soft ball games, and the practice preceding them, are keeping sunset hours lively. No matter what the score, the onlookers have a good time.

POET'S CORNER

I WILL ONLY HEAR BY G. M. LEPPER But still across the night I see a candle burning, And still within my heart There will always Be a yearning. And as still as a bird That ever went a-flying, My heart will speak of love Though tear drops may be drying. As still as a snowflake Across the barren waste, What seemed lost in giving Heaven has replaced. Then I will go to the hills With just the trees above, And I will only hear them "Speak to me of love."
