MARKET REPORTS

WOOL

BOSTON, Aug. 13—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin today says:

"Manufacturers have shown comparatively little interest in wool this week and the market is a bit easier, on the whole, although concessions are made most reluctantly and there is some irregularity in prices made. Dealers are inclined to [illegible] that they have realized from 68 to 70 cents. Top makers insist they can buy good [illegible] the wools at 60 and 63 cents, clean basis.

"The piecegoods markets are slower both in woolens and worsteds.

"Foreign markets are also quiet but generally firm and inclined to await the Australian opening.

"In the west, little has been done but some buying is reported in fine medium wools in the far west at 60 to 65 cents according to the wool. Medium merchantable bright wools have been sold at 29 to 30 cents, delivered destination.

"Mohair is rather quiet. Some old and new fall hair is reported sold in Texas at 40 cents for adult."
