MISS RUTH HOOVER AND DR. H. R. NERBAS MARRY ON AUGUST 17TH

The marriage of Miss Ruth Hoover, daughter of the late Dr. E. V. Hoover and Mrs. Hoover, of Roseburg, to Dr. H. R. Nerbas, of this city, was solemnized by Rev. C. A. Edwards, a close friend of the latter, at nine o'clock Wednesday morning, August 17th, at the St. George's Episcopal church. At the close of the impressive wedding ceremony, Rev. Perry Smith gave the benediction. Only the immediate families of the bride and bridegroom attended the wedding.

The bride wore a tailleur of dark blue with burgandy accessories and a corsage of white flowers. A wedding breakfast was served at the Hotel Umpqua, following the ceremony, after which the bride left for coast points. Upon their return here Sunday, they will make their home in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

The bride, who is prominent in music circles here, attended the Roseburg high school and later attended University of Oregon, where she majored in music. Since returning to Roseburg, she has conducted a piano studio. Dr. Nerbas is also well known in Roseburg, having practiced dentistry here for a number of years.

FALL CHIC IS IN THE BAG

But Carry a Roomy One

(Bag by Coblenz, New York.)

Enormous is the word which best describes the new handbags that smart women will carry with their fall clothes. Expertly designed to look large but not clumsy and to hold all necessary makeup as well as other odds and ends, they will charmingly accent simple dresses and offer an interesting contrast to tiny hats.

The chic, roomy model, at left, is a shining example of the new trend. It's completely in tune with the charm of the Louis XIV era which is widely discussed right now. It's made of "worked" leather which was created by a famous maker of smart purses. The leaf design, pressed into the leather, gives an applique effect. The bag is shown with a small velvet hat and suede gloves—both in matching shade of warm rust.

The smart, roomy bag of smooth black calf, above, will go nicely with any tailored street costume and would be a great comfort to the traveller. A wide gusset, so cleverly concealed that it doesn't mar the shape of the bag, allows plenty of room for letters of credit, a passport, adequate makeup, and lots of papers. The body of the bag and the flap are lined with one piece of leather. A gold button makes the snug fastening.

CHARMING SHOWER PARTY GIVEN MRS. TRUEBLOOD WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. George Churchill entertained at a very lovely one-third o'clock dessert-luncheon and charming shower party at her home on South Kane street Wednesday afternoon in compliment to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Paul Trueblood, of Moscow, Idaho.

Beautiful bouquets of colorful summer flowers were used about the rooms. The serving tables were attractively appointed for the occasion and covers were placed for Mrs. Trueblood, guest of honor, Mrs. F. H. Churchill, Mrs. Mary Tefft, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. V. V. Harpham, Mrs. Fred Aam, Mrs. Robert Hawley, Mrs. Charles Doerner, Mrs. R. R. Brand, Mrs. Clyde Beard, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. Bruce Mellie, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. S. Raynor Smith, Mrs. J. E. McClintock, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. Vera McClintock Jones, Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. Earl Wiley, Mrs. L. M. Lilly, Mrs. Lucien Cobb, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, Mrs. A. N. Orcutt, Mrs. Charles A. Edwards, Mrs. Edna Spanogle, Mrs. Perry Smith, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mrs. G. W. Leeper, Mrs. D. J. Geddes, Mrs. Hugh Whipple, Mrs. L. F. Wilson, Mrs. Roby Goff, of Phoenix, Arizona, and the hostess, Mrs. George Churchill.

Beautiful shower gifts were presented to Mrs. Trueblood and the afternoon hours were joyfully spent in visiting.

Mrs. Trueblood, nee Helen Churchill, and daughter, Anne, have been spending the summer here visiting the former's mother, Mrs. F. H. Churchill, on East Cass street.

MRS. J. A. HART IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB ON MONDAY NIGHT

Mrs. J. A. Hart very graciously entertained her bridge club at a charming eight o'clock dessert-supper at her home on South Stephens

U. S. V. HOSPITAL

The patients who were invited by the American Legion to see the ball game last Sunday between the Roseburg and the Woodburn Juniors so enjoyed it that they would like to help bring the outside team back again, and give our boys another chance to win the top score.

During the period of Father Sheehan's visit to the Auld Sod mass is being said here the first and third Sunday mornings by Father Lawless. As a representative his services for patients who are unable to go into town to church.

Chaplain Perry Smith's congregation will miss him the next two Sundays, while he is absent from town attending a summer school for clergy.

"Gold is Where You Find It" was played in one of the Roseburg theaters last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and here on Monday. It was interesting to note in the column next the show advertisement in the News-Review a prediction that Oregon's gold yield for 1938 would probably be $3,000,000, an increase of nearly sixty per cent over that of 1937. This was made by the director of the state department of geology and mineral industries, and he is in a position to know real facts. Do you suppose there is gold under our feet here?

Tuesday evening the auxiliary to the Deane-Perrine chapter of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War gave us a bingo party. The ladies progressed from table to table so that each guest played with all the men, and no favorites. Everyone had a good time.

One of our population started to complain because an attendant woke him up "out of a sound sleep," but the other fellows in the room were grateful for the act. The sound of his sleep was too loud for their comfort.

The lights of the auditorium shone on eighty heads at our dance Wednesday evening. The Eagles' orchestra furnished the music, and the nurses of Mercy hospital and Eagles' ladies were invited guests. If we could have had our wives here too the party would have been perfect. We are all very grateful to Larry Orth, George Hammer, and Mrs. Virginia Springstead for contributing their time and talents.

Thursday's picture show, "Paradise for Three," did not reveal the kind of a plot we had expected from the title, and left us wondering which three were happiest. The dish-washer certainly got a big promotion.

The teams in Friday's softball game were not quite evenly matched, but the playing was good, and both the men on the field and those looking on enjoyed it.

The fruits of the earth from the Old Home farm across the river are filling our hearts with joy by way of our stomachs these days. No canning factory can make us believe their products are just as good.
