

News of Douglas County

SUTHERLIN

SUTHERLIN, Aug. 24—John and Sandy Thomson, of Dixon, Calif., visited here and in Roseburg, Sunday.

Mrs. Ryley is constructing a three-car garage on her lots back of the service station.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wahl and their daughters, Charlotte and Nancy, drove to Gaston Saturday. They were accompanied home Sunday by Mrs. Wahl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White, who will visit here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Short, of Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman, of Tacoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Trolle, enjoyed a picnic supper at Fair Oaks Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. James Stuteman, the latter former Sutherlin residents who have been visiting in Indiana for several years, spent the weekend at Port Orford visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perkins.

Clifford Horner, coach for the Sutherlin schools, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gisen Mardlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Smith visited last week at the home of the latter's parents in Monmouth.

Mrs. Ben Wofford, accompanied by her brother, Harry Harris, who has been visiting here from the east for the past week, departed for California Friday to visit their sister in Oakland and an aunt in Pomona for some time.

Mrs. Wofford is taking charge of Mrs. Wofford's work at the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wolfe and family left for Portland Saturday where Miss Josephine will enter the hospital for an operation on her feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Selbeck and Mrs. Selbeck Sr., visited the latter's son, Lewis Carr, who is receiving treatment at the Veteran's hospital Sunday.

Lola Stowe, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stowe, is spending the week visiting June Carter at Coon creek.

Mrs. Walter Stowe, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Lyle Smith were Roseburg visitors Sunday evening.

Mrs. Fay Padelford of Corvallis, who is visiting relatives here and in Roseburg, arrived from Roseburg Saturday to spend the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Owen Rose.

The large house on the Sweetland ranch has been reshingled.

Mrs. Myrtle Kumpul, sister of Mrs. DeMuth, has been quite ill at the home of the latter for the past week.

Miss Joyce Holgate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holgate, is spending some time visiting at the homes of relatives in Gladstone and Milwaukie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dunninger of Portland visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Real, Mr. Dunninger is a niece of Mr. Real.

Those enjoying the annual picnic of the county road workers Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. Leatherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weseman and Mrs. Jack Denley.

Everett Owens, Cottage Grove boy who has attended school here for some time, is visiting friends here this week.

F. H. Bassett of Oklahoma arrived here Tuesday to spend six weeks visiting his daughter, Mrs. Melvin Nichols.

F. H. DeMeritt spent the weekend at home. He has been working in Drain. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nichols and F. H. Bassett were dinner guests at the DeMeritt home Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. James Stuteman left Saturday for Woodburn to pick hops.

Bonnie Alcorn of Fair Oaks was a Saturday night guest at the home of Pauline Trolle.

Mr. and Mrs. Duvard Rose, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Rose Sr., last week. The latter, who has been ill with a throat infection, returned to Roseburg Tuesday. She had been staying at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hanna.

The four race horses belonging to Hugh Miller of Oakland and A. B. Smith of Sutherlin, are being taken from Renton, Wash., to Gresham Monday by Mr. Miller. They will be entered in the races at the fair at Gresham.

Kenny Dean, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wahl, is receiving treatment for miasoid trouble several times a week at the office of Dr. Seely of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Goff, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Knowles were visitors at the Bonanza mine Sunday.

DAYS CREEK

DAYS CREEK, Aug. 24—W. T. Wright and J. A. Rhoads returned Saturday from a business trip to Burns, Lakeview and Klamath Falls.

Pete Uam, who recently accepted a position with the U. S. forest service, left Wednesday night for Pendleton where he will assume his new duties.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore and daughter, Nettie, and sons, Leon and Jimmie; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sumner and daughter, Dona Joyce, and Jack Mills, spent several days last week vacationing at Coos river where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris and daughter, and son of Nelson, Neb., were the guests of the Andrew Harris family the past week.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Days Creek UH canning club held at the Rhoads home Friday afternoon a demonstration, "Preparation of canning equipment" was given by Wetha Hutchinson and Mildred Spore.

There will be a picnic for grangers and their friends held at the Beale swimming hole Sunday, Sept. 4 at 1:30 p. m. with the South Umpqua grange as host.

Susie and Wetha Hutchinson

FLAPPER FANNY

By Sylvia

"You wouldn't hafta hunt your marbles if you'd put 'em away every time where they're s'posed to be, under the overshoes in the hall closet."

LOOKINGGLASS

LOOKINGGLASS, Aug. 23.—Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Olivant on the arrival Monday of a nine-pound boy.

Mrs. Clayton Arnold is having a vacation in Salem and vicinity visiting with friends.

Mrs. Alma Le Clerc is enjoying a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Estol Anderson, of Los Angeles. On Friday the Andersons accompanied by Mrs. Le Clerc went to Portland to visit the latter's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Booth LeClerc, returning to Lookingglass on Monday.

Mrs. Everett Hodges and small children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hodges and family.

Miss Blanche Aroek has accepted a position in the Myrtle Creek bank and will begin her duties there on next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Larsen returned home from a visit in Seattle and northern points last week. On the return trip they received minor bruises and severe shock when their car collided with an auto freight truck near Eugene. Considerable damage resulted to their new car.

Miss Fern Baine spent several days last week at the home of Miss Violet Andrus, returning Sunday afternoon to her temporary home with her aunt in Myrtle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh took a truck load of young people to the Epworth League rally at Tenmile on Friday evening, where they met with representatives from other churches of the Dillard circuit. A pot luck supper was enjoyed, followed by a short musical program and a devotional service conducted by Rev. C. E. Brittain. A violin trio was played by Otto Halseth, Dorothy Olson and George Marsh accompanied on the piano by Virginia Olson. A violin duet with piano accompaniment was played by Otto Halseth and Dorothy Olson. Mrs. Brittain led the group singing. Miss Virginia Olson played a piano solo. The event was greatly enjoyed and marks the beginning of a series of group rallies, which the Rev. Mr. Brittain is planning to hold from time to time at the different points of the circuit.

Those attending from Lookingglass were: Violet Andrus, Constance Elliot, Fern Baine, Olive Peterson, Maxine Buell, Virginia Brown, Tom Hodges, Dorothy Olson, Virginia Olson, Otto Halseth, Vernon Green, Joe Green, Ray Owens, Raymond Buell, George Marsh, Spencer Buckle, Ivan Andrus, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh.

Ivan Andrus has been spending a few days with the home folks before returning to the CCC camp for another term. Ivan is in the ordinary department and has been promoted to the position of third cook.

Mrs. Mary Smith returned to her home in Hood River last Wednesday after spending the past three weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Marsh and family.

Mrs. V. A. Alcock and Mrs. Nelson Andrus have gone to Ashland expecting to work in the cannery.

Robert Montgomery is home for a short time before taking up his work as a teacher in Myrtle Point schools.

Rev. and Mrs. Rimmel and son, Phillip, were dinner guests Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh and family. Following the morning church service which was conducted by Rev. Mr. Rimmel.

A very interesting Epworth League service was held on Sunday evening with Miss Blanche Aroek as leader. Miss Grace Montgomery will be the leader next Sunday.

The valley folk are looking forward to a treat on Sunday evening, Aug. 28, when Dr. Sydney W. Hall, district superintendent of the Methodist church will conduct the service, assisted by Rev. and Mrs. Brittain.

Mrs. Forest Holmes and daughter, Miss Maurice, have returned from a trip to the Bend country.

MYRTLE CREEK

Mrs. Fay Painter and children, and her niece, Vera Painter, of Centralia, Wash., are guests at the home of Mrs. Painter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Leighton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hart are among the latest arrivals from Los Angeles. They have lived on the E. C. Bryant farm for a short time but moved last week to the Claude Smith farm on S. Myrtle.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore, who purchased the C. C. March farm in June of this year, have almost completed making over the house, barn, and other buildings on the place. They have made a new chicken house and built and straightened up quite a lot of fence; they also cut and stored about 7 tons of volunteer hay and put in some garden which was late to get even a shower, but in spite of that they have raised some string beans, limas, a fairly good crop of tomatoes and potatoes, and a few other vegetables of various kinds.

Mrs. Fred Shelton and son, Bernard, spent Sunday calling on old friends and neighbors in the Cedar Grove district. Mrs. Shelton, who is employed in Aberdeen, Wash., has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Clarke at Millwood, and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fields and son, Jerry, and Mrs. Fields' brother, Harlan Weaver, came over from Marshfield Saturday and spent the weekend with friends and relatives, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Burris and children, Billy Jr., and Barbara Jean, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Burris' mother, Mrs. M. Dieckman, left Tuesday morning for their home in Pueblo, Colo. They were accompanied as far as San Francisco by Mr. and Mrs. John Dieckman, who were also parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wood returned Tuesday from a visit with an aunt at Monmouth and with Mr. and Mrs. Del Wood and children at Carlton. Her niece, Joyce Wood, returned home with her for a visit.

Miss Eva Whitney, who is now living in Oakland, Calif., arrived Tuesday for a few days vacation which she is spending with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Whitney, also visiting with friends.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Claire Brownson, at Klamath Falls, August 18, a daughter, Sharon Lee, weight 5 pounds and 6 ounces.

Miss Audrey Starbuck accompanied her uncle and aunt, Mr. and

W. B. Younklin returned to Luning, Nevada, last Thursday, having been here on business connected with a change of tenants for his Missouri Bottom farm. Mrs. Jones and son, Herbert, have rented the farm for the next year. Mr. Younklin, whose health is very poor, expects he may have to enter the soldiers' home in Nevada soon.

Mrs. Clayton Wood returned Tuesday from a visit with an aunt at Monmouth and with Mr. and Mrs. Del Wood and children at Carlton. Her niece, Joyce Wood, returned home with her for a visit.

Miss Eva Whitney, who is now living in Oakland, Calif., arrived Tuesday for a few days vacation which she is spending with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Whitney, also visiting with friends.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Claire Brownson, at Klamath Falls, August 18, a daughter, Sharon Lee, weight 5 pounds and 6 ounces.

Miss Audrey Starbuck accompanied her uncle and aunt, Mr. and

TEACHERS CHOSEN AT MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, Aug. 24—G. A. Sprague, principal of Myrtle Creek schools, reports that four new teachers have been employed for the coming year. They fill vacancies created by resignations of Mrs. Gladys Elam Michaels, primary teacher; Miss Vera Jane Wallham, 3rd and 4th grades; Robert Fleming, manual training, and Thomas Ireland, athletic director.

The personnel of the teaching staff for the local schools during the coming school year is announced as follows: Miss Margaret Billings, 1st and 2nd grades; Miss Helen Wetherell, 3rd and 4th grades; Miss Eileen Quarum, 5th and 6th grades; John Gibson, 7th and 8th grades. High school faculty—Miss Roe Martin, English, dramatics, journalism; Mrs. Henry Shireliff, science, girls' physical ed., home economics; Marion Weitz, manual training; Harold Carlike, commerce, boys' physical ed.; G. A. Sprague, principal, social science and public speaking.

The date for opening schools has not yet been announced.

ELKTON SWIMMING SCHOOL COMPLETED

ELKTON, Aug. 24—The swimming school sponsored at Elkton by the American Red Cross with Maynard Bell of Roseburg as instructor, closed Saturday. It was the second such school to be held here. Students enrolled were DeLoris, Marian, Elsie and Gay Huges, Ray, Roger, Loyal and Royal Bos; son, Sherry and Ted Colley, Virginia, Elma and Erma Gates, Barbara, Allen and Zane Adams, Jay Griffith, Lois Anderson, Laura and Irene DeGnath, Donna Jean Haines, Dorothy Jones, Orpha Millsbaugh, Douglas Fenley and Ruth Cutlip.

SIX OUT OF EVERY TEN HOSPITAL PATIENTS INSANE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Uncle Sam is worried about the mental health of the nation's citizens. The national resources committee thinks the problem of mental disease is the most baffling in the entire field of health. It states: "Sixty per cent of all occupied hospital beds in the United States are now assigned to patients suffering from nervous and mental diseases."

LAST WOMEN MAIL CARRIER GIVEN INSIDE POSITION

ANACONDA, MONT.—(AP)—After having trudged 65,648 miles, Anna McDonald, called the last of Uncle Sam's women letter carriers on city routes, has been transferred to a postoffice clerical position.

She started carrying the mails in 1918 when the war caused a shortage of men carriers. During her 20 years of service, she estimates, she has made 2,590,112 stops and carried 283 tons of mail.

Mrs. McDonald did not ask for the transfer; the postoffice department ruled that carrying letters in a man's job.

DANCE BLATTNER'S HALL Canyonville Saturday, Aug. 27 Good Music

Attend the South Douglas Community Fair and the dance at Blattner's Hall.

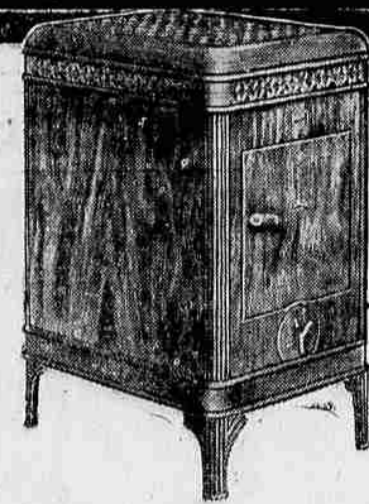

Admission Gentlemen 40c — Ladies 10c

ACT TODAY!

WE'LL GIVE YOU

$10.00 For your Old Heater

(MORE IF IT'S WORTH MORE)

Model Illustrated: P-122 Wood Circulator

$95.75

We show many models for wood only... and others which use either wood or coal.

WHEN YOU TRADE-IN YOUR OLD HEATER AS Down Payment on any beautiful, new MONTAG CIRCULATOR HEATER

A new Montag will solve your heating problem quickly, efficiently, economically. For many years it will bring you abundant, healthful warmth and real convenience. By trading your old heater to us now, you'll get ENJOYABLE COMFORT as a VALUE which is seldom available. Don't miss this wonderful opportunity! SEE us or PHONE us so that we can appraise your old heater today. There will be no charge or obligation.

Montag models are priced as low as

$58.75

*Types and styles to meet every home heating requirement

See our Complete Display!

JUDD'S FURNITURE STORE

321 NO. JACKSON ST.

TELEPHONE 26

They say He's Great

Man in Need: "Good work! — You caught it in time!"

Friend Indeed: "Glad you came in — checking tires to make them last longer is one of our specialties. Just a moment and I'll inspect your battery and check your oil, too — just to be on the safe side!"

CLEAN REST ROOMS—AS ALWAYS!

"For Your Convenience Everywhere"—Spotlessly clean rest rooms — completely equipped — even the soap is specially selected to whisk away road grit and leave the hands soft and smooth. Hourly inspected and kept sanitary. A Standard "plus" service your whole family will appreciate.

STANDARD SERVICE

GET STANDARD SERVICE AND STANDARD GASOLINE UNSURPASSED AT STANDARD STATIONS, INC. AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTORS AND STANDARD OIL DEALERS

USE OUR NATIONAL CREDIT CARD — GOOD FROM COAST TO COAST

Circulators - Heaters

New and Used

Circulators $22.50 up

Heaters $1.95 up

Ranges, used $10.00 up

Ranges, new $42.50 up

One only 450-lb. all cast white enamel range, reg. $98. Our price $62.50

Liberal allowance on your old range or heater.

Pacific Hide, Wool and Metal Co.

222 West Oak St.

Roseburg, Oregon