POET'S CORNER

INCONSISTANCIES

Nation will war against nation, Lose many men in the fray, Lay waste to the land and the cities, Make debts they never can pay. Dumb innocent women and children, Kill thousands and maim many more, Then sit 'round the table to settle What might have been settled before. The government curtails production To raise prices on things we all need, Builds dams to irrigate new lands, The crops we now raise to exceed. They tell us they'll balance the budget, Cut taxes and make living cheap, Keep adding new federal bureaus With high salaries and expensive upkeep. The A. F. of L. calls a boycott, The C. I. O. calls a strike, The laboring man cannot labor No matter how much he would like. Some businesses pay too much money To bosses and their bonus they hike, The stockholder loses his income And labor for justice must strike. Some folks go to church every Sunday, Study their Bible and pray, Then week days, forgetting their Master, On the rest of the people they prey. Others will scoff at religion And think they can always get by, Expecting, they ask God to help them When in trouble or likely to die. H. C. Parlow, Roseburg, Ore.
