way to cure the itch for money is to scratch for it."

"Yeah but who wants to act like a hen?"

The color tour of India, which was our short subject at the picture show Thursday evening, was very interesting. The feature, "Forty-five Fathers," showed humorous complications produced by a child's fearless reaction to her ideas of truth and right. Jane Withers always furnishes diverting entertainment.

Enthusiasm at our softball games runs high. One fan leaves his teeth in his bedside locker when he goes to see one, that he can holler freely.

MRS. PENGRA HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

BOLERO EFFECT SO INVITING PATTERN 4889

Here's an exciting bit of originality—a new youngsters dress that looks as though it had a separate bolero—and yet it is all one garment! Mothers will love the idea, since it's so easy to sew—and gives the bolero effect with swing skirt that youngsters love so much. Think of all the variations you can play up with Anne Adams' new Pattern 4889 that boasts three sleeve variations! With a dark-colored skirt and bodice panel that won't soil easily, you can put a light print as winsome as the little face above it. Or you might have the whole dress in one shade, in sheer voile for party wear, in percales for school and romping hours. The Sewing Instructor makes it easy for you to run it up!

Pattern 4889 is available in children's sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12. Size 6 takes 18 yard contrast.

DOILY SERVES MANY PURPOSES By RUTH ORR PATTERN No. 566

A unique, lacy looking doily of 14 inches in diameter, becomes necessary for every home. A table will improve in appearance by just this doily, set off by a lamp or vase. This size can be used for a buffet or luncheon set, and since you can make one quickly, you will find it a lovely gift to give away.

The pattern envelope contains illustrated directions, also what pattern hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 566 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address: News-Review, Needlework Dept., Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

ANNUAL REUNION AND PICNIC AT YONCALLA

YONCALLA, Aug. 26.—The annual reunion and picnic dinner of the descendants of W. H. and Hannah Dickinson Wilson was held on the Pleasant valley school grounds Sunday, August 21.

The site chosen for this annual reunion, is very near the original donation claim of these worthy pioneers, and is still owned and occupied by their son, J. B. Wilson, and wife, and the widows of their sons, the late John D. and W. W. Wilson.

This reunion, started several years ago, has proved to be a very enjoyable occasion and is looked forward to and planned for, by many members of the families. This year sickness and other unavoidable causes kept many from attending, who have originally been present.

After the bounteous dinner, which was served at one o'clock, visiting and the exchanging of reminiscences was enjoyed; group singing, led by Jim Whipple, was enjoyed with Miss Little Darby at the piano, which was moved out on the schoolhouse porch for the occasion. The singing of "Mother Machree" for the mothers present by Mr. Whipple, who is an accomplished singer, was greatly appreciated.

A "round robin" letter, participated in by all present, was written, to be sent to Mrs. Ella Burt, of Portland, who is ill at the Portland sanitarium.

Members of the families present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson, Yoncalla, Miss Minnie Wilson of Drain, Mrs. Susan Cowan, and son, Gus, Drain, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooke, Azalea, Mrs. W. W. Wilson, Tillamook, Mrs. Sarah I. Wilson, Yoncalla, Miss Olive I. Wilson, Yoncalla, Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson, Salem, Misses Alberta and Lavina Wilson, Tillamook, Miss Velma Wilson, Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brant, Lois May, Letta and Joanne Brant, Yoncalla, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Wilcox, and daughter, Jean, Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Wilcox, Jr., and Norma Jean, Roseburg, Robert Wilson, Wilcox, Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whipple, Drain, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gardiner, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wilson, Yoncalla, David L. Wilson, Redmond, Miss Deb L. Wilson, Yoncalla, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ray, Kenneth and Laura Ray, Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ray and children, Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ray and son, Billy, Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ray and son, and daughter, Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Snyder, Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Crow, Carolyn and Keith Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kelso of Yoncalla, Kenneth Crow and son, Nathan, Eugene.

Friends of the family present were Miss Little Darby of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Chas. Lambert, Tulare, Calif., Mrs. Nelly and Raymond Garret of Yoncalla.

SHOWER GIVEN MRS. DUNN

Mrs. S. C. Dunn was honored Monday evening at a shower given for her by Mrs. R. L. Irving and Mrs. H. O. Peterson, at the J. A. Peterson home on Military street.

A bountiful trimmings in baby blue taffeta was filled with many useful gifts, and presented to Mrs. Dunn by Patty La Peterson, who was dressed in matching blue taffeta.

During the evening, games were played, and Miss Lois Updike, Mrs. N. A. Holm, Mrs. R. L. Irving, Mrs. H. O. Peterson, and Miss Mary Peterson enjoyed the evening.

After the gifts were opened, refreshments were served by Miss Edna Mae Updike, Miss Lois Updike, Miss Jean Stephens, and Mrs. J. Wilbreth, to Mrs. Robert Stephens, of San Francisco, Mrs. N. A. Holm, Sutherlin, Mrs. J. A. Peterson, Mrs. V. J. Meadell, Mrs. P. O. Ackerly, Mrs. William Huntling, Mrs. Wallace Robertson, Mrs. Ira Byrd, Mrs. Glenn Meyers, Mrs. Dave Meyers, Mrs. Anna Dowell, Miss Mary Peterson, Miss Patty La Peterson, and the honored guest, Mrs. Dunn.

MR. AND MRS. WIMBERLY ENTERTAIN BRIDGE CLUB FRIDAY EVENING

POET'S CORNER

MY PRAYER

Heavenly Father, wise and loving, Help me ever to trust in Thee, And Thy power ever proving, From superstition set me free.

I have asked of Thee a blessing, Great, and manifold to be, All day sins to Thee confessing, Thou didst hear, and answer me.

There's no friend on earth that's like Thee— Faithful when we're false, and cold, Though in youthful days we slight Thee, Thou wilt take us when we're old.

Goldenweds Celebrate Anniversary

On August 26th, 1888, at a small village in Kansas, Miss Mary Durkin, of Manchester, England, became the bride of J. C. Gerety, of Atchison, Kansas.

On August 25th, 1938, just fifty years later, this couple, pictured above, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on East Douglas street, Roseburg.

Soon after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Gerety moved to Wichita, Kansas, where they resided until they came to Oregon.

After spending some time elsewhere in Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Gerety moved to Roseburg, where they resided the past fourteen years.

The Geretys have two children, Mrs. A. E. Dorman, of Grants Pass, and a son, now residing in Wichita, Kansas.

Many friends and relatives complimented the couple at their home here Thursday, and appropriate gifts were presented to them.

New Show at Rose Sunday

Margaret Sullivan and James Stewart, stars of the picture "Showdown Angel," which is coming to the Rose theatre Sunday and Monday. Second feature on the double bill is "The Show Goes On," starring Anna Neagle.

MRS. GEORGE BOLTER COMPLIMENTED AT AL FRESCO TEA

Mrs. Dexter Rice and Mrs. Donald Hollwell entertained at a lovely al fresco tea at their home on Kane street, Wednesday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. George Bolter, of Portland.

Between the hours of three and five, approximately one hundred guests greeted Mrs. Bolter.

The tea table was most attractive, with an Italian outwork cloth set over pale pink. The centerpiece was an antique filled with baby zinnia and cornflowers, flanked on either side by pink tapers and an old fashioned light bouquet.

Mrs. Mary Harding and Mrs. H. D. Graves presided at the tea table the first hour, with Mrs. J. F. Barker and Miss Rose H. Perrott pouring during the second hour.

Mrs. Maurice Newland, Mrs. Edward Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. Ford Singleton, Miss Dorothy Whitaker, and Miss Jean Mills, of Marshfield, assisted in the serving, while Mrs. Wade and Miss Helen Casey assisted about the rooms.

THIRD ANNUAL ROAD EMPLOYEES PICNIC

The Douglas county road employees held their third annual picnic at the Wolf creek camp in the Umpqua national forest, Sunday, August 21. Over one hundred employees and their families were present, including the Douglas county road patrolmen, shop employees, bridge men, truck drivers, and members of the county court.

A bountiful potluck dinner was served at one o'clock, with Mr. and Mrs. Mace Spancake acting as official dispensers.

The afternoon was spent in playing two soft ball games, both of which proved very interesting.

The first game was between the road patrolmen and the truck drivers. The second game, between the men and their families, was very exciting, with Miss Croucher and Mrs. Jack Denley pitching and catching.

These annual gatherings are held each year at different sections of the county.
