MRS. MARY JOHNSON HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

MYRTLE CREEK, Aug. 30.—A surprise birthday party and picnic was given to Mrs. Mary Johnson Sunday, August 28, at the Chase poultry farm, one mile east of town on North Myrtle.

Mrs. Johnson, who was 57 years old last Saturday was made very happy by receiving the congratulations and good wishes of many friends as well as many gifts.

Four generations of her family were represented as follows: her daughter, Mrs. Verna Williams and two children, Vinnie and Hubert Williams; Zane and Wanda, children of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Williams.

Mrs. Johnson is a very healthy, active woman. She is well read and keeps up-to-date on all the current happenings. She bought the large flower garden of the late Mrs. Clara McKean and has pruned and cleared and entirely made over the large tract of which it is composed, during the past year. She reads without classes and says: "My grandfather lived to be 108 and a half years old, and if I can feel as well as I do now I should like to live that long myself."
