ELKTON CHURCH OF CHRIST
Walter A. Barnes, pastor Bible school 10:00; preaching service 11:00. Sermon to be given by Evangelist Gottlieb Schmid.
8:00 evening service in charge of evangelist. The revival services of the Elkton Church of Christ are now in the third week under the direction of Evangelist Gottlieb Schmid who is a capable crayon artist in addition to being a forceful and interesting speaker. The pictures which he draws during the services are given every second night to the ones who bring the largest delegation of new people to the meetings.
Sunday, October 2, will probably bring the campaign to a close, atter which it is expected that a complete reorganization of the church will be perfected. Monday, October 3, several members of the church are planning to attend the thirty-eighth Douglas County bimonthly convention of Churches of Christ to be held at Drain. Those who desire to attend may ride with Floyd McMichael on his truck.

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

St. Paul saw in Christ the great peacemaker and we shall make progress in achieving world peace only as we accept the teaching that He so strongly emphasized in dedication my life to Jesus Christ I shall dedicate it to the great principle and idea of human brotherhood and understanding. through which alone war shall be outlawed and made for ever impossible. We may organize and plan against war as much as we can, but the only sure guarantee against it is the growth of the Spirit of Jesus Christ in human hearts and lives and society. Those who work for that growth are the real peacemakers. Do Thou help us, our Heavenly Father, as followers of Jesus Christ also to follow after the things that make for peace and friendiness and human understanding, building up, by our spirit and our attitude and conduct from day to day, the mind of our Master who is the world's peace.

FORTLAND, Ore, Sept. 30—(AP)—A "vacation affecting 1900 furniture workers was threatened today if operators pressed a proposed 10-cent per hour wage cut.

Members of the Furniture Workers union, local No. 1482, voted almost unanimously not to accept the cut on new agreements to supplant contracts expiring Saturday.

Fritz igel, union business agent, declared no strike vote had been taken or was contemplated, but that "we rejected the wage cut and won't go to work Monday if the employers don't change their minds by that time." praise service at 2.30; Christian Endeavor at 7; evening worship at 8 and a banquet for young people at 9 n.
