ELEANOR SMITH TO

SEATTLE. Sept. 29—(AP)—A sanity examination of Mrs. Mary Eleanor Smith, accused in the 10-year-old disappearance of James Eugene Bassett, was ordered by Surerior Judge Howard M. Findley today.

today.

Mrs. Smith, former inmate of the state penitentiary, and her son, Decasto Eart Mayer, who is serving a life term in prison as all habitual criminal, were charged with murder in connection with the disappearance of Hassett in 1928.

pearance of Hassett, in 1978.

Warren Hardy, Mrz. Smith's attorney, opposed the move, made by County Prosecutor B. Gray Warner. Mrs. Smith was driven insane temporarily, Hardy argued, and is this condition confessed she and Mayer slew Bassett, but now she is sane.

Hardy insisted the "clever de-signs" of Mrs. Margaret Padelford Fawcett, another prison inmate, caused Mrs. Smith to become temporarily deranged. The attorney said Mrs. Fawcett sought a pardon for her part in reopening the Bassett case. warner said Mrs. Smith signed a statement that she and Mayer killed Passett for his automobile, then disposed of his dissected body, parts of which never have been found. She pleaded "not guitty by reason of insanity" to the murder charge.

Date for the sanity hearing will be announced after the commission is selected, Warner said.
