

News of Douglas County

SUTHERLIN

SUTHERLIN, Sept. 30—Cecil Bowman, who has been in Montana for the past few months, returned last week to attend to property interests. He is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cook, Mrs. John Cook and Miss Norma Bundy drove to Portland Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomson, of Davis, Calif., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Keith. They are former residents of Sutherlin, having operated a garage here for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson are remodeling their home east of town, adding a new bedroom.

Mrs. Lloyd Cameron and Miss Elizabeth Abacher were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geddes at Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Laetherhand have moved to the hotel apartments from the place formerly known as the Shirley place. Mrs. Boyd and family of Idaho, who are the owners, will take possession soon.

A party of hunters and their wives including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, of Portland, Jeff Medley, Jimmy Medley, Ward Cockeran and Chas. Davidson, the latter from Oakland, returned from eastern Oregon near Klamath Falls, Saturday, where they were fortunate enough to bag five fine mule deer.

Ed Keith received a bad scald on his leg while at work at his mill Saturday.

Kenneth Comstock of Seattle arrived last week from Seattle for the hunting season. He is visiting at the home of his father, P. A. Comstock, in company with his brother, Max, they shot a large deer recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Vera Holgate were Saturday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kling in east Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Kling are recent arrivals from California.

John Metzker arrived Monday from Illinois to visit at the home of his brother, Athen Metzker. He will spend several months here.

R. T. Slater and family of Coquille were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Comstock last Sunday. Mr. Slater is a son of Mrs. Comstock.

The Rush Clark prune drier near Oakland finished work Monday.

A. L. Real is clearing up his lot preparatory to erecting a new building.

A. B. Chester took a load of grape juice belonging to Dr. I. A. Dunlap to Klamath Falls Monday.

Herman Meyers, Texaco service station operator of Oakland, was a visitor in Sutherlin Monday.

A load of piling loaded by Kirk and Whipple last week left Monday for California.

The Allan Tutbill prune drier finished their work Tuesday. Several local people have been employed there for the season.

Dick Valentine and Orval French are hauling gravel for the streets of Sutherlin.

Mrs. Hazel Klauke, formerly Miss Hazel Turner, well known in Sutherlin, who was seriously injured in a car accident in Portland is slowly recovering in the hospital there. She is a niece of Mrs. Henry Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCraw and Miss Laverne McCraw of Portland were week-end guests at the home of Mr. McCraw's grandmother, Mrs. Myrtle Sutherlin.

Richard Riggs left for Reedport where he will be employed for the winter driving a truck. Mrs. Riggs will join her husband there in a short time.

SUTHERLIN, Sept. 30—A small prune drier belonging to L. J. Gleason burned to the ground early Wednesday morning. The cause of the fire is unknown. The drier has stood for sixteen years.

Mr. and Mrs. Gleason were Roseburg visitors Saturday on matters regarding the insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ettinger and Alf Smith of Marshfield were Sutherlin visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barr Sr., of Roseburg, have leased the Saucerman place four miles east of Sutherlin and will take possession soon. The place has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Alvern Holm.

Mrs. Gladys Firman, who has rented the Louisa Smith house, moved her furniture from Roseburg Monday.

James Ponton has a new Chevrolet pickup truck for use at his feed store.

Loyal Goff, Jack Culver Jr., and Bill Edwards the latter of Elkton, returned Saturday from eastern Oregon where they had gone mule deer hunting. Mr. Goff and Mr. Culver each bagged a fine deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Smith and children of Roseburg visited at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Goff, Sunday.

E. J. Crawford of Deady burned a large slash on the east side of his place last week.

R. O. Goff and son, Loyal, were business visitors in Riddle Sunday.

Emil Hall, who has been suffering from a large carbuncle on the back of his neck, is improving slowly.

Miss Grace Fitch, who has been employed at Art's Log Cabin, south of town, was called home Friday to Wilbur by the illness of her mother. Pauline Trozelle took her place Sunday.

OLALLA

OLALLA, Sept. 30—Cell and Henry Ireland visited their sister, Mrs. Maud Giles, at Bandon over Sunday.

Earl Ollivant is improving his residence with a new shingle roof.

Roy J. Carnall was taken to the Veterans hospital near Roseburg Saturday for medical attention. Mr. Carnall has been under the care of a physician most of the time for the past two years.

Keith (Bud) Ireland, who spent the summer at Ketchikan, Alaska, returned to his home here the last of the week.

Joe Holmelia, who has been working night shift in the Charlie Moore prune drier at Tenuille, finished the season's run Monday night.

Clifton Friend came up from Medford to spend the week-end with friends and old neighbors here. Clifton formerly lived in Olalla.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ollivant and their house guest, Mrs. Annie Jones from Pomona, California, were calling on friends Sunday afternoon.

RIDDLE

RIDDLE, Sept. 30—Mrs. Maud Davis of Bandon was visiting her last week at the homes of her brothers, C. E. and Phillip Bundell. Mrs. Davis will teach near Bandon this winter.

Frank Sparks, traveling salesman for the Albers Milling Co., made a business visit here Tuesday.

Miss Jenkins, whose home is at Portland, visited recently at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Howland.

G. P. Aspey, who is recuperating from an operation at the hospital in Eugene, is reported to be improving rapidly and is able to be up in a wheel chair part of the time.

Art Johnson, who is employed at Roseburg spent the week-end here with home folks.

Frank Bradstreet, proprietor of the Red and White store, made his usual trip to Astoria the first of the week with a truck load of feed.

Mrs. May Wallace of Tillamook, who was enroute to Grants Pass on business, stopped here last week for a few days visit with her cousin, Miss Bossie Cain.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Weygant, newcomers in this community, who purchased the eleven-acre property of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, have made extensive improvements to their buildings this summer. The buildings have all been re-roofed and painted and interior improvements added to the residence.

Milton Acker, clerk at the Alkous Grocery store, had the good fortune to bag a big buck last Sunday while hunting on Old Piney.

TENMILE

TENMILE, Sept. 30—The next meeting of the Community Circle will be held Wednesday, October 5, at the Rowell park. Instead of the usual potluck picnic lunch a watermelon feed will be served.

The last meeting was at the home of Mrs. Josie Smith when a larger attendance enjoyed a pleasant afternoon in sewing and visiting.

DAYS CREEK

DAYS CREEK, Sept. 30—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Higgins visited in Roseburg Thursday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alvord, J. A. Rhoads and W. T. Wright transacted business in the county seat Friday.

Ira Brock and Harley Gunton went to Tule lake Thursday, where they hope to find employment.

Gordon Clarke, of Grants Pass, spent Sunday at the Pete Ulam home.

Mina Lou Gervais, a member of the 1938 graduating class of the local high school, has enrolled at the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland.

Sude Crispin, of Milo, is spending the remainder of prune harvest at the Hutchinson home.

Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cool, both of San Francisco, have been hunting in this vicinity.

Mrs. Bob Paris of Greens visited at the homes of her daughters, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Carl M. Hill, and Mrs. Ivan Welch, and her son, Lawrence Michaels, Wednesday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jack Wyatt of Roseburg.

The Frank Wooster family, who have resided on what is known as the Tim Tiller place for a number of years, recently moved to the Bill Jobs farm on Woods creek.

Clay Ulam and sons, Jack and Bill, accompanied by Orville Weaver, of Myrtle Creek, returned from the Burns vicinity the latter part of the week. They were successful in their quest for mule deer, bagging back four fine bucks.

Ivan Welch was home from The South Umpqua Falls CCC camp for the week-end. He took his family into Roseburg for a day of pre-school shopping.

Mrs. Jack Higgins went to Roseburg Saturday afternoon where she met her daughter, Mrs. Beryl Loffer, to accompany her to Eugene for a visit with the latter's husband, Ronald Loffer, who has been in the hospital in that city since a hunting accident a year ago. It is reported that Ronald is to be brought to the Mercy hospital

DANCE

at BLATTNER'S HALL CANYONVILLE

Saturday, October 1st

with Dale King and His Band Admission Gentlemen 40c — Ladies 10c

In Roseburg soon to complete convalescence.

Mrs. Pete Ulam and daughter, Florence, Mrs. J. D. Wright, Mrs. Walter Poole and Josephine Wright were visitors in Roseburg Friday.

Miss Ulam had one dental work done while Mrs. Poole visited her brother, George Riggin, who is a patient at the Mercy hospital.

Saturday evening the infant daughter of Mrs. Louise Bigham was taken to the Mercy hospital where she was placed in the incubator for special care. Her mother accompanied by Mrs. Evelyn Moore also went to Roseburg.

J. A. Rhoads went to Ashland taking the trailer home in which Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alvord, residents of this community for a good many years, expect to make their home this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Alvord are planning to go to Ashland about the middle of this week.

Mrs. Fred Wright and twin daughters, Della and Doris, of Roseburg, who had been visiting at the J. D. Wright home, left Monday for Glendale to visit her sister, Mrs. Frances Marks. From there they planned to go to Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass to visit friends.

Mrs. Alice Feltner left Friday for Tule lake where she will be the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ottinger, who are well known in this community, having made their home here for some time several years ago.

Charles Farmer of Medford was a guest at the Ray Wright home for several days.

Among the local people attending to business in Roseburg Saturday were Walter Hutchinson and daughters, Gem and Wichita, Wayne Smith, Howard Moore and Charles Mather.

George Higgins, a member of the South Umpqua Falls CCC camp spent the week-end at his home in Milo.

Muri Hutchinson and Jack Smith left Thursday for Corvallis where Jack will enroll in the school of forestry for his senior year while Muri will continue his course in mining engineering.

Mrs. Ivan Welch went to Myrtle Creek for medical attention Sunday.

Mrs. Pete Ulam and daughter, Florence, and Maxine Wright attended the show in Myrtle Creek Saturday evening.

The end of another prune harvest is rapidly approaching. In most of the orchards the work is already completed. A few, however, will still have several days picking.

Mrs. H. R. Ferguson, of Roseburg, is making an extended visit at the homes of her sons, Archie and John.

Earl Sumner, Charles Mather and Bernard Delosky went to the head of the river Sunday on a hunting trip.

CANYONVILLE

CANYONVILLE, Sept. 30—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Flowerday of Milo were dinner guests of Alice May Woolley Sunday.

Hiram Hash and J. E. Scott went on a fishing trip Sunday up the North Umpqua near Winchester.

Mrs. L. H. Crockett was a business visitor in Roseburg Friday.

C. L. Moore of Lang Beach, Calif., is spending several days in Canyonville. He recently purchased a sixty-acre ranch at Myrtle Creek from C. C. March, and also 50 head of sheep up Rice creek.

George McClain transacted business in Roseburg Friday.

Henry Goldson, an employee of Coico Co., attended to business affairs here Monday.

Mrs. Ira Poole returned home Saturday after spending a few days at Tiller.

Frank Stalleup of the Grants Pass Chevrolet Motor Co. was a business visitor in Canyonville Monday.

Walter Smith of Portland, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamlin, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Cornutt and Miss Norma Byron visited and shopped in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. Arundel, piano tuner of Roseburg, was in town Tuesday on business.

Lester Spencer, Jr., is home after spending a few days in the Mercy hospital.

L. E. Martin was in town on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wendleroth of Anchor, were business visitors in town Monday.

R. B. Whitney was a Myrtle Creek visitor Tuesday.

T. L. Weaver of Days Creek was in town on official business Tuesday.

Clarence Johnson of Riddle was here Monday on business.

Bob Starret of Days Creek was visiting friends here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Long of Roseburg were attending to business affairs here Tuesday.

Ira B. Riddle, Floss Dillard and Agnes Pitchford of Roseburg were here on official business Tuesday.

Mrs. Emma Wamsley, Harriette Puckett and son, Charles, Betty Rose, Virgil Hoskins, Mrs. Mark Elliott and Willa and June Elliott were shopping in Roseburg Wednesday.

The R. W. Paulsen family will move into their new house Saturday and the house they now live in will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ramberg and family spent Wednesday shopping in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steels and family were business visitors in Roseburg Wednesday.

John Ulam of Morgan creek caught a large cougar in a trap near his place last week. The animal had killed a number of sheep and Mr. Ulam blaming the mischief on coyotes was very much surprised to find the big cat in his coyote trap. The animal was eight feet long.

A severe rain storm something akin to a cloud burst caused a great deal of discomfort and some excitement to residents of Canyonville Friday.

People having defective roofs on their houses were busy moving things under cover, while tourists were waiting in their cars for slides to be removed from the highway, through the canyon south of town. Local men patrolled the highway all night to make the road passable. Some of the slides covered the highway three and a half feet deep.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Childs of Arlington, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Childs' sister, Mrs. Henry Clay.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Paulson of Astoria visited relatives in Canyonville Wednesday.

Luke Beak has gone to Montana for a short time to assist in managing a store owned by his brother, who is ill. Clifford Beak will drive the school bus during his absence.

Prune harvest is practically over this week and school children, who have been working in the orchards are returning to school. About 40 per cent of the school children stayed out to work in the harvest this season.

Swearingen of Portland was also a guest Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redington and mother, Mrs. L. B. Redington, of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, returned home after a week's visit with the Jess Redingtons; while here they went to the beach and took in the community fair.

A hunting party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lakey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boak, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harman and Mrs. Edna Kenney, who went to eastern Oregon last week, returned Sunday evening. Gene Lakey brought back a five-point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Redington went to Oregon City Saturday to spend a few days visiting at the homes of Mrs. Redington's mother, Mrs. Wakeman, and brother, Golden Wilson.

Miss Violet Hoover, of Salem, visited from Thursday till Saturday afternoon at the Devore and Wisegarver homes. Miss Hoover will spend a few days vacationing at the beaches, before returning home. A benefit program will be given at the community hall on Friday night, for the two families who lost their homes and all their household goods by fire recently.

The Townsend club met Monday evening for the regular business session.

Swearingen of Portland was also a guest Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redington and mother, Mrs. L. B. Redington, of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, returned home after a week's visit with the Jess Redingtons; while here they went to the beach and took in the community fair.

A hunting party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lakey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boak, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harman and Mrs. Edna Kenney, who went to eastern Oregon last week, returned Sunday evening. Gene Lakey brought back a five-point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Redington went to Oregon City Saturday to spend a few days visiting at the homes of Mrs. Redington's mother, Mrs. Wakeman, and brother, Golden Wilson.

Miss Violet Hoover, of Salem, visited from Thursday till Saturday afternoon at the Devore and Wisegarver homes. Miss Hoover will spend a few days vacationing at the beaches, before returning home. A benefit program will be given at the community hall on Friday night, for the two families who lost their homes and all their household goods by fire recently.

The Townsend club met Monday evening for the regular business session.

Swearingen of Portland was also a guest Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redington and mother, Mrs. L. B. Redington, of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, returned home after a week's visit with the Jess Redingtons; while here they went to the beach and took in the community fair.

A hunting party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lakey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boak, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harman and Mrs. Edna Kenney, who went to eastern Oregon last week, returned Sunday evening. Gene Lakey brought back a five-point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Redington went to Oregon City Saturday to spend a few days visiting at the homes of Mrs. Redington's mother, Mrs. Wakeman, and brother, Golden Wilson.

Miss Violet Hoover, of Salem, visited from Thursday till Saturday afternoon at the Devore and Wisegarver homes. Miss Hoover will spend a few days vacationing at the beaches, before returning home. A benefit program will be given at the community hall on Friday night, for the two families who lost their homes and all their household goods by fire recently.

The Townsend club met Monday evening for the regular business session.

Swearingen of Portland was also a guest Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redington and mother, Mrs. L. B. Redington, of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, returned home after a week's visit with the Jess Redingtons; while here they went to the beach and took in the community fair.

A hunting party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lakey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boak, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harman and Mrs. Edna Kenney, who went to eastern Oregon last week, returned Sunday evening. Gene Lakey brought back a five-point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Redington went to Oregon City Saturday to spend a few days visiting at the homes of Mrs. Redington's mother, Mrs. Wakeman, and brother, Golden Wilson.

Miss Violet Hoover, of Salem, visited from Thursday till Saturday afternoon at the Devore and Wisegarver homes. Miss Hoover will spend a few days vacationing at the beaches, before returning home. A benefit program will be given at the community hall on Friday night, for the two families who lost their homes and all their household goods by fire recently.

The Townsend club met Monday evening for the regular business session.

Swearingen of Portland was also a guest Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redington and mother, Mrs. L. B. Redington, of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, returned home after a week's visit with the Jess Redingtons; while here they went to the beach and took in the community fair.

A hunting party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lakey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boak, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harman and Mrs. Edna Kenney, who went to eastern Oregon last week, returned Sunday evening. Gene Lakey brought back a five-point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Redington went to Oregon City Saturday to spend a few days visiting at the homes of Mrs. Redington's mother, Mrs. Wakeman, and brother, Golden Wilson.

Miss Violet Hoover, of Salem, visited from Thursday till Saturday afternoon at the Devore and Wisegarver homes. Miss Hoover will spend a few days vacationing at the beaches, before returning home. A benefit program will be given at the community hall on Friday night, for the two families who lost their homes and all their household goods by fire recently.

The Townsend club met Monday evening for the regular business session.

Swearingen of Portland was also a guest Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redington and mother, Mrs. L. B. Redington, of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, returned home after a week's visit with the Jess Redingtons; while here they went to the beach and took in the community fair.

A hunting party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lakey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boak, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harman and Mrs. Edna Kenney, who went to eastern Oregon last week, returned Sunday evening. Gene Lakey brought back a five-point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Redington went to Oregon City Saturday to spend a few days visiting at the homes of Mrs. Redington's mother, Mrs. Wakeman, and brother, Golden Wilson.

Miss Violet Hoover, of Salem, visited from Thursday till Saturday afternoon at the Devore and Wisegarver homes. Miss Hoover will spend a few days vacationing at the beaches, before returning home. A benefit program will be given at the community hall on Friday night, for the two families who lost their homes and all their household goods by fire recently.

The Townsend club met Monday evening for the regular business session.

DRAIN

DRAIN, Sept. 30—Mrs. Dwight Cunningham of Yreka, Calif., after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gardner, and other relatives here, has returned home.

Joe Leonard left last Saturday for Dallas where he will teach in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Nelman, who lived on the Hayhurst road near the old rock crusher, lost all their household goods, when their house was destroyed by fire, Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gotcher had as their guests over the week-end Mr. Gotcher's nephew, Wm. Miller, and his mother, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Hubert and Mrs. Harber, all of Albany. The two former ladies are sisters of Mr. Gotcher. Bert

COMPLETE OPTICAL SERVICE
Dr. D. B. Bubar
116 No. Jackson

Quality Painting Distinctive Interiors
CALL BEN FITZSIMMONS
Phone 763-J 813 Miller St. Roseburg

YOUR Maytag DEALER
City Electric
124 W. Cass St. Phone 233

WAR OR NO WAR!
There is work to be done, and you need tools to do it well and cheaply.

Rebuilt 15 Cletrac.
Rebuilt John Deere Model D.
Rebuilt Fordson Rubber Tires.
Rebuilt Fordson, Plows, Discs.
Harrows, Fordson double drums.

"See Us First—We Can Save You Money"

DOUGLAS COUNTY
Farm Bureau Co-op. Exch.
Roseburg, Ore.

NEWS-REVIEW

BARGAIN DAYS

OPEN TODAY

Save 25% by Renewing Your Subscription Now. Money Saved is Money Earned Earn it This Easy Way

Only $4 per Year by Mail Anywhere
Only $6 per Year by Carrier in Roseburg

Simply mail or bring your remittance to this office -- Your account will be credited and your expiration date duly extended.

The Roseburg News-Review

order your WOOD

NOW--and save

Be a wise bird, and don't delay ordering your full winter's wood supply. You'll save now--or you'll pay more later!

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Green Slab, 4', per cord	$2.00
Green Slab, 16", per cord	3.00
Planer Ends, load	4.50
Mill Ends, load	4.50

DRY WOOD

1 ft., per cord	$3.00
16", per cord	4.50
Hard Wood, tier	2.50
Sawdust, unit	2.50

Delivered in City
TELEPHONE 282
ROSEBURG LUMBER CO.