EX-LEGISLATOR RECEIVES HIGHER INSURANCE POST

Bernard A. Young (above), who recently resigned his position as state legislator from Douglas county, has been appointed as agency organizer for the Oregon branch of the New York Life Insurance company, for which he has been local manager for the past eight years, it was announced today.

The appointment was made personally by Alfred L. Aiken, president, during his recent visit to Portland, an outstanding occurrence. The appointment was made in recognition of Mr. Young's excellent sales record.

Mr. Young will make his headquarters in Portland, taking up his new duties November 1.

The Douglas county republican central committee is expected to meet within the next few days to appoint his successor in the vacated legislative post. The appointee also will take Mr. Young's place as republican nominee at the forthcoming general election.

They brought home two nice bucks.

VETS' BUREAU AIDS DAD-CHILD REUNION

QUINCY, Calif., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Catherine Perry and her father will be united after 17 years, thanks to the veterans' bureau at Washington.

Jack Perry, employed at a saw-mill near here, last saw his daughter in 1921, when she was two months old. Circumstances separated them and Catherine, born at Darlark, Ark., now lives at North Bend, Ore.

Catherine's query to the U. S. veterans' bureau produced information concerning her father, a World war veteran, and now Perry is arranging to bring his daughter to live with him on a ranch in Plumas county.
