Today's Pattern

'TEENSTER'S "4WAY" FROCK! PATTERN 4827 A Four-Way Dress that's as fashionable in its way as the much-talked-of high-heeled. And to be sure that Pattern 4827 will be extra popular, Anne Adams has made it easy for any bright teenster to stitch it up in a twinkling! Look at the picture, and you'll see that you may sew one or all of the "knockout" styles shown—a suspender-frock with frisky bows and incisions on the corsalet section, and a ruffled collar blouse—another jumper-type with button trim, and neckline "on the square"—and a one-piece boasting a separate contrasting girdle or a self belt.

Hatfield, Mrs. A. P. Slack, Mrs. S. DeMuth, Mrs. Savilla Bamber, Mrs. O. W. French, Mrs. N. K. Eby, Mrs. Dorothy Phillips, Mrs. Walter Stowe, Mrs. F. J. Huber, Mrs. Chas. Hartley, Mrs. Oscar Sigismund, Mrs. Ray Parker, Miss Norma Bundy, Miss Ruth Jacobs, Rev. Jacobs, by the hostesses, Mrs. French and Mrs. Chapman.

Creatations of Art With Needlework

Our designer is an expert at motifs and every time one is completed we think she has done her best, but approvingly find that the next one is even better. You will find this motif simple to crochet but attractive in design and will want to make all your furnishing in the same pattern.

Eat Model Bakery's Non Acid Bread

Having much less starch than other breads makes it less fattening. No refined sugar is used, consequently it contains an invert or negative sweetening instead of positive, which is important to all bread users.

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark
