RED CROSS TRAINS

MANY LIFE SAVERS

"Millions of swimmers in the Pacific and Atlantic occains, the lakes, rivers, municipal and pri-vate pools, throughout the United States are guarded by Red Cross He savers as the organization continues its campaign for great-or water safety." said Ellen Posi-chairman of Douglas county chan-ter, today in appealing to citizens of this community to support this work by joining the Red Cross, November 11-23.

November 11-24. Since it began teaching life yaving technique in 1914, the Red gross has granted life saving cer-ificates to 884.848 persons. Dur-ing the part year 88.148 passed sources of instruction in life sav-fug while 185.813 c om pleted courses in swimming and water sefers

pafety. Mrs. Post says Red Cross rec-ords show that thousands of per-tions have been saved from drown-ing by these Red Cross-trained awimmers. During the past year the Nation-al Red Cross conducted 14 auua-tic achools where 1,686 advanced students received extensive train-ing ia instruction methods all as part of the Red Cross program to provide protection of the millions of persons who enjoy swimming.
