MISS LOIS MORIAN AND ROBERT V. MILLER ARE MARRIED ON SUNDAY

At a beautiful and impressive wedding, Miss Lois Morian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morian, became the bride Sunday, November 6th, of Robert V. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Miller, at the home of the bride's parents at 233 Ford street. Rev. Charles A. Edwards performed the ring ceremony at eleven o'clock in the morning in the presence of about forty friends and relatives. The ceremony was performed before a colorful banner of autumn leaves flanked by potted ferns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an afternoon frock of teal blue banded with brilliant. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. Miss Phyllis Morian was maid of honor for her sister and was attractive in an afternoon frock of variegated colors and a corsage of white rosebuds. Albert Miller was best man for his brother.

Informal reception followed the wedding service, to which members of the family and intimate friends were invited. The beautiful bride's cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, which had graced the cake of the bride's parents at their marriage, was cut by Mrs. Miller. Assisting in serving were Miss Dorothy Nelson, Miss Phyllis Morian, Mrs. L. E. Moore, of Sitkum, and Mrs. Fred Lafferty, of Myrtle Point.

Mrs. W. A. Morian, mother of the bride, wore a dark, blue ensemble with a white gardenia corsage. Mrs. Miller, mother of the bridegroom, wore an afternoon dress of black crepe and a gardenia corsage.

For her going away costume the bride chose a tailored street dress with a topcoat of black wool and matching accessories. Following a luncheon through California, Mr. and Mrs. Miller will return to Roseburg to make their home in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

Guests included Mrs. E. T. Morian, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Woods, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Moore, of Sitkum; Mrs. Fred Lafferty, of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Alton Miller, of Marshfield, and Miss Ruby McKinley, of Myrtle Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morian, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. Ross C. Lovelace, Mr. and Mrs. Story Lee, Mrs. H. A. Booth, Mrs. Louise Slegel, Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. Allen Moore, Mrs. Harriet Morian, Ronald Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hendricks, Carl Black, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Braughton, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hanson, Albert Miller, C. Lovelace, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Miller, Mrs. Ella B. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Farrel Iles and Bill Moenan.

The many beautiful wedding gifts were shown in one room of the Morian home.

JOHN WESLEY MCKEAN AND DORIS HELEN SPEARS MARRY IN PORTLAND

A wedding of much interest in Roseburg occurred at the church parlors of the Sunnyside Methodist church at 35th and Yamhill streets in Portland Sunday afternoon, when Miss Doris Helen Spears, of that city, became the bride of John Wesley McKean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McKean, of Roseburg. Rev. Milton A. Marcy, pastor of the church, performed the impressive service in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

A beautiful setting of chrysanthemums was used in the church parlors for the ceremony. Miss Winifred Winkler, of Vancouver, Wash., a roommate of the bride, played "Liebestraum" preceding the ceremony and followed by playing Lohengrin's Wedding March for the bridal party to enter the room.

The bride was beautiful in a white lace wedding gown over white satin with a finger-tip veil and a shower bouquet of pink bouvardia and roses, arranged with fern and tied with white ribbon streamers of satin.

Mrs. Sybil Runyan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was charming in a blue taffeta formal frock. Robert McKean acted as best man to his brother.

Miss Lois Taylor, of Forest Grove (who is teaching this year at Roseburg senior high), a former roommate of the bride, and two of the bride's sisters, Miss Florine and Miss Lois Spears, assisted about the room and received the guests.

The bride attended Oregon State college, where she resided at Walden Hall, and received her degree in home economics. Mr. McKean, who resided at Cauthorn Hall while attending O. S. C., received his degree and is now employed by the state fish and game farm in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. McKean are spending their honeymoon at coast points, after which they will go to Corvallis to make their home.

Attending the wedding from Roseburg were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McKean, Mrs. Sarah Schloerhan, Mrs. H. C. Darby and daughter, Miss Mary Ellen, Miss Lois Taylor and William Miller.
