Nazis Not Stung

Referring to "skycraper dictators in the United States," the editorial continued "one may be convinced in the United States that Germany won't be touched by a campaign of agitation and official repressions, for it long has been the tradition of American policy to produce anti-German feeling in a country by the most unfair methods to overcome its own difficulties more easily."

The ambassador is leaving Berlin tonight. While many Jews hid after the anti-semitic violence, begun last Thursday, to escape arrest, until today they had begun gradually to reappear about their homes.

New Attack. Now there is fear the funeral on Thursday may stir even more violent feeling among nazis who consider Von Rath a martyr, and in increasing despair the Jews have adopted secret codes for communication while they keep as much as possible in seclusion.

Jewish newspapers are forbidden, so thousands do not know what is happening to their people in the country.

They hear of the misfortunes of friends only by roundabout ways. They do not use telephones, unless they have agreed with friends upon code phrases.

The Jewish community headquarters building here is guarded now by Berlin police.

The Jewish elders may carry on their conferences with others summoned by special couriers, but they are forbidden to discuss the results.

One hysterical woman exemplified the order, which nearly all the 600,000 German Jews have fled since the Thursday burning of synagogues and smashing of show windows led to a $400,000,000 punitive bill against Jewish wealth and decrees to smash Jews from social and economic life.

BOY KILLER OF GERMAN DIPLOMAT RECITES WOES

PARIS, Nov. 16.—(AP)—The 17-year-old boy who started the German anti-Jewish violence was "on his own" for the first time when he shot a German ambassador's secretary.

Embarrassed and fearful after he learned of the Nazi anger at the death of the secretary, Ernst Von Rath, the youth said he had been sleeping on parks and banks of the Seine for two weeks before the attack on November 7.

He had been trying to get a job. Here is the story told by the boy, Herschel Grynszpan:

He was born at Hanover, Germany, March 18, 1921, of Polish parents. His father, a tailor, became a naturalized German.

"Treated Like a Dog." He came to Paris two years ago because there was no opportunity for one of my race to remain in Germany. I obtained permission from my parents to come to France because I could not continue to be treated like a dog and work like other people and not like a hunted beast.

Until two weeks before the shooting of Von Rath, Grynszpan lived with his aunt and uncle, who conducted a small tailor shop in Paris.

He decided to earn his own living. He saved him 3,000 francs (about $75) sent him by his father. He was vague about the two weeks up to the night of November 6 when he registered at a hotel.

He bought a gun next morning and shortly before 9 a. m. went to the German embassy. The assault followed.

His immediate resentment, he explained, was because his parents were ordered to leave Germany, without possessions, under a government order expelling many Polish Jews.

Outbreakangers Goering. There developed, meanwhile, indications the destruction of last week was a sharp setback to the Nazi four-year plan for economic self-sufficiency.

Field Marshal Goering, who is administrator of the plan, was angered by the destruction of millions of dollars in property, a trustworthy informant said.

To Goering, who has been driving the Germans to conserve every scrap of tin, coal, glass, etc., the result was destruction of property of a minority that would have been preserved for the good of the Nazi majority.

Walter Funk, economics minister, in a speech last night said that 2,000,000,000 marks ($800,000,000) of their wealth had been taken from the Jews. He fixed the net value of their property at about 7,000,000,000 marks ($2,800,000,000).

"It is now possible to exclude the Jews from conducting German business and to take over the rest of their property in return for script," he said.

United States against mistreatment of German Jews probably will await Ambassador Hugh Wilson's conference with President Roosevelt, federal officials said.

Expression of this belief followed the president's disclosure he personally gave the order for the American envoy to return from Berlin at once to report on anti-semitic violence.

New Attack. The news of the past few days from Germany has deeply shocked public opinion in the United States. Mr. Roosevelt said yesterday at his press conference.

"Such news from any part of the world would inevitably produce a profound reaction among American people in every part of the nation."

The president read his brief statement—an unusual procedure—to the reporters gathered around his desk. His voice was serious and his manner solemn.

Government officials regarded his remarks as highly important, inasmuch as the head of a nation rarely comments on internal developments in another country.

Other Problems Listed. Mr. Roosevelt indicated he would receive from Ambassador Wilson, after his arrival late next week, "a first-hand picture of the officials to predict the two men would talk over not only the Jewish problem but also such points as:

1. Germany's ignoring of repeated American notes asking her to assume Austria's debts to this country.

2. Germany's economic campaign in central Europe, which may impair American trade in that region and which already is interfering with the conclusion of a trade agreement between the United States and Turkey.

3. Germany's ambitions, economic and political, in Latin America.

Many who heard Mr. Roosevelt yesterday linked that third point with his remarks on a common defense of the western hemisphere by the 21 American republics and Canada against any aggression from abroad.

Senator Logan (D-Ky.) suggested today the United States and other American republics join England, France and other nations in "ostracizing Germany" to force an end to anti-Jewish activities.

"This seems to be about the only way to bring a crazy man to his senses," the Kentucky senator said, adding he did not believe the German people as a group approved Hitler's program, and eventually would end it themselves.

Other congressional comment warmly approved President Roosevelt's condemnation of the recent anti-Jewish moves and applauded his action in calling this country's ambassador to Germany home for conferences.

Senator Bailey (D-N.C.) said "what's going on in Germany is unspeakable and I wish I could think a protest by our country would arrest that cruelty."

The North Carolina senator said "the same thing happened in Russia, only it was worse. They destroyed millions of people in Russia—starved many of them."

Both Germany and Russia should illustrate to the American people the value of our constitution and the right of a citizen to go to the courts to get justice."

Senator Pope (D-Iowa), a member of the senate foreign relations committee, said President Roosevelt's remarks were entirely justified.

"One wonders how long that sort of thing can go on without protest from the civilized world," Pope said.

Several senators said they had received many appeals from American relatives of German Jews to aid in getting refugees into the United States.

ileged. To maintain the American price level on exports, Taber urged utilization of a "tariff draw-back," using tariff revenues to lift agricultural export prices.

"We must demand that in future all trade agreements and treaties shall be ratified by the United States senate before going into effect," Taber added.

Continuation of chemical research to find new uses for farm products, curbed government spending, the right to organize and bargain collectively with labor, currency reform to obtain an "honest dollar," and deportation of all persons "preferring" another form of government were advocated.

Results Un satisfactory. Referring to the farm act, Taber said: "If we weigh the present act on the scales of farm income and prices, it is obvious that it has not reached a satisfactory goal."

CIVIL SUIT AIRED IN CIRCUIT COURT

A circuit court jury today heard charges brought by James H. Wittmeyer against Earl H. Payne and others, that boundaries of land recently purchased by the plaintiff near Yoncalla had been misrepresented.

Wittmeyer is asking damages in the sum of $1,500 for the alleged misrepresentation. The jury hearing the case is composed of G. A. Brown, Etta Throne, Douglas Bailey, W. A. Karcher, George E. Shamp, Ethel Catching, Robert M. Anderson, T. J. Bowman, Walter Leske, A. H. Marsh, Wilton H. Garrett and L. J. Hewitt.

Granville Raper, world war veteran, died last night at the veterans facility here. He was admitted recently from Yoncalla. The body has been removed to the Roseburg Undertaking company parlors pending funeral arrangements.

ARMISTICE FETE ALL-WAY SUCCESS

The Armistice day celebration sponsored by Umpqua post of the American Legion was successful in all departments, according to a report made last night by Chairman "Skip" Cacy at the regular post meeting.

The post adopted a resolution of thanks to all merchants and other individuals who participated in making the event a success.

It also was reported that the Roseburg and Eugene A. Star football teams, which played an exciting game as a part of the Armistice day program, desired another meeting, and it was voted that the post sponsor a return match to be held in Roseburg Thanksgiving day.

Ben Fitzsimmons was named as chairman to reorganize the local post of "The Sons of the Legion."

Wally Downer, legion scoutmaster, made an interesting report on the activities of the post's Boy Scout troop, and reported that the Elks lodge has extended the use of the hall in the lodge building for scout meetings.

Following the post's business session, a joint meeting with the auxiliary was enjoyed.

U. S. WILL DEFEND WEST HEMISPHERE

King of Canada said at Ottawa Mr. Roosevelt's statement was a further indication of the common interests of Canada and the United States. He recalled the president's speech last summer at Kingston, Ont., in which Mr. Roosevelt said the United States would not stand idly by if Canada were threatened by an aggressor.

The Canadian cabinet, like the Roosevelt administration, is considering increased defense expenditures for the next year.

Mr. Roosevelt did not give out definite figures in his exposition of aims involved in the rearmament program, but his remarks gave support to persistent reports he would propose an army air corps of from 7,000 to 10,000 war planes. This would form one of the world's strongest aerial armadas.

There is no present intention, he said, to try to create a navy strong enough to defend both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts at the same time.
