THANKSGIVING BALL WILL BE CHARMING AFFAIR NEXT THURSDAY.

The largest and most outstanding social event of the coming week will be the annual Thanksgiving ball of the Business and Professional Women's club at 9:30 o'clock next Thursday evening, November 24, at the armory. A most cordial invitation has been extended to the general public to enjoy this charming annual affair.

Mrs. L. L. Spencer is acting as general chairman of the ball and with her committees, is working to make the 1938 affair one of the most outstanding ever sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club.

The decorations for the affair are in charge of Miss Bess Wharton, chairman, Miss Nadine Pinkerton, Miss Lois Duncan, Miss Hazel Doerner and Miss Evelyn Willis.

The door committee included Miss Ina Farnsworth, chairman, Miss Vera Fredrickson, Miss Dorothy Norton, Miss Margaret Oederkirk, Mrs. Elizabeth Garrett, Mrs. Irvin Brunn and Mrs. Edyth Gilmore.

Mrs. Story Hess is acting as publicity chairman for the ball. Dale King's seven-piece orchestra has been secured to play the music for the ball.

Today's Pattern

by Anne Adams JUNIOR FROCK BOASTS

PATTERN 4939

Merrily to school—and still more merrily to parties—goes this jaunty bolero frock with separate jumper and blouse! It's such a winsome, practical Anne Adams style, ideal for every event on winter's calendar—Christmas holidays included! A clever idea is to sew two jumpers of different material and harmonizing color—and just one bolero that will match one exactly and contrast with the other. Then with several cute blouses, all these garments can be interchanged to seem a large wardrobe indeed. The making is so simple that even the Junior herself, would find it easy! Choose wool for school jumpers and bolero—and becoming plaid synthetics for party wear.

Pattern 4939 is available in girls' and junior sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16. Size 10, jumper, takes 1 3/8 yards 54 inch fabric; blouse, 1 yard 3/8 inch fabric.
