

CRIPPLED INDIANS BATTLING TODAY

Makeshift Team Opposes Springfield Millers on Foe's Field.

By MAYNARD BELL. Big Chief Jim Watts and his band of crippled Indian braves called forth from the local wigwam early this morning to meet the Springfield High school Millers in the latter's own lair in the final football game of the season...

Against the Millers, another face of a regular will be among those missing. This time it is big Keith Kennedy, plunging fullback and stellar defensive man...

Makeshift Team Looks As for the rest of the iron men composing the makeshift lineup, most are operating at about 50 per cent efficiency. "Club" Church, regular end, out with a cold, has worked out in only one practice session all week...

Despite the discouraging outlook for chances of victory in today's game, the lay band of battle-scarred veterans of seven previous campaigns are determined to give the Miller's the battle of their lives...

Morale High, However. Despite the discouraging outlook for chances of victory in today's game, the lay band of battle-scarred veterans of seven previous campaigns are determined to give the Miller's the battle of their lives...

Roundup of the probable starting lineup will be Church and Simon, ends; Albertus and Perry, tackles; Kershner and Parrott, guards; Wimberly, center; if Wimberly or Albertus should open in Kennedy's position, Shoemaker and Anderson will take their places...

MEDFORD HIGH BIDS FOR TITULAR GAME

By the Associated Press. Oregon's football teams settled down to the task of sifting out mythical section and state champions today as the season whirled toward its close. Medford, which disposed of Grants Pass 21 to 6 last night, kicked with McLaughlin high of Milton-Freewater to a "state championship" football game at Medford on Thanksgiving...

APOSTOLI EASILY DEFEATS CORBETT

Technical Knockout in 8th Round Ends "Titular" Battle in N. Y.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Fred Apostoli holds today at least half of the world's "middleweight" or 150-pound, boxing championship, the reward for his eight-round technical knockout of young Corbett 3rd, a fellow Californian, last night in Madison Square garden.

Corbett, 33 years old and weary as time, sank down on one knee and gave up the ghost in 2:01 of the eighth after Apostoli had knocked him down three times. Some 7,500 spectators, including Col. Fulgenzio Battala, head man of Cuba, declared it a pretty tame evening.

Corbett, in his dressing room, lifted three eyes to say: "He just wore me down. He was not strong, and his body punches hurt me terribly." One of his handlers said: "You can't keep on fooling old man time. He finally gets you."

Krieger Is Rival. The situation is now that Apostoli holds the world's middleweight championship, providing you ask the New York state athletic commission. If you should ask the National boxing association, which controls the game in most of the rest of the country, the champion is Solly Krieger of Brooklyn, who was a critical witness of last night's exhibition.
